Summer Fun

Oh, the joys of summer. Children playing, swimming, exploring new things, without a care in the world. Adults enjoying balmy afternoons sitting on the porch and drinking lemonade -- listening to birds singing and crickets chirping and cicadas buzzing -- watching bumble bees and butterflies -- nature's magic. The wind kicks up rustling leaves, there's a quick summer shower: "I wonder if there will be a rainbow?" The sun is too hot! Oh, but those glorious sunsets. The chores are done, it's time to rest, savor a cool evening breeze and watch a gentle moonrise -- look there's a firefly, and another... Ah, a day to behold!

Soul Survivor

Well over 100 children attended this week long experience as Bible Baptist Church held its annual community event Monday thru Friday, from 7 – 8:30 p.m., July 11-15, 2011.

This year's theme was "Soul Survivor," very similar to the popular television show "Survivor."

The children had a blast learning about God's Word and how to be a soul survivor for His Kingdom.

The week included games, music, singing, skits, snacks and much more!

BBC has held what used to be known as "Vacation Bible School" for many years. It has been a great tool for bringing kids into an environment where they can have fun while they learn about the Bible. ###

Value of Relationship Banking

Many financial institutions segment their customer base. Many use a “value” approach, segmenting customers by their value to the bank — looking at the number of products owned, or estimating profitability.

Others use psychographic approaches to identify the differences among customers as they relate to attitudes about life in general or about managing their financial lives.

Customers enter into relationships with banks having different expectations — and desires — for what that relationship will be.

In many cases, a consumer doesn’t want a relationship — he simply wants to buy and use a product or service from the institution.

For most people, the centerpiece of their relationship with their bank is a checking account.

Studies have shown that consumers overwhelmingly define “their” bank as the institution where their checking accounts are held, not the bank where they may have a mortgage or CD.

It’s no wonder banks throw a sizeable amount of money toward attracting and retaining consumer checking accounts.

Banks in search of “total relationships” with customers are offering free checking accounts with loan discounts, investment bonuses, insurance incentives and other financial sweeteners.

Because banks are offering discounts or freebies when you have multiple accounts, you can use any banking product you are considering, as leverage to snag something else you want

Mum and Garage Sale

The Moonachie First Aid & Rescue Squad will be holding its 6th Annual Mum Sale on Saturday, September 24, 2011, from 8 a.m. to 4 p.m., at 121 Moonachie Avenue, Moonachie, NJ. Beautiful 8” pot size mums in assorted colors will be on sale for $8 each.

Together with the mum sale, the Squad will also be hosting a garage sale featuring housewares, toys, clothes, books, etc. Baked goods will also be available. Donations welcome. Drop off at the Squad building the night before. For oversized items, call 201-641-9094. All proceeds go directly to the Squad for operating expenses. ### from the bank -- say, a higher CD rate.

The more business you do with one bank, the more likely they are to sweeten the deal.

The challenge is – defining your expectations:

Interpersonal excellence - These are the consumers who are predominantly looking to deal with employees who are friendly and helpful; take the time to listen to problems, concerns, and needs; and live up to values portrayed in the bank’s ads.

Advice and guidance - These consumers are expecting objective advice and guidance in making product decisions and making the best use of those products. They may or may not care if the people they deal with are “friendly,” and they may not care if the advice and guidance they get even comes from a human (versus a Web site).

Operational excellence -

These consumers want to do business with a bank that’s easy to do business with and never makes mistakes.

Again, they may or may not care if the people they deal with are “friendly and helpful” — in fact, they probably don’t even want to talk to those people in the first place. Internet banking and mobile banking are the tools they prefer to use.

Many customers want all three TO SOME DEGREE, but want one much more than the others.

Older customers (>50) tend to want the interpersonal connection. Younger, less affluent customers are looking for objective help with their financial decisions.

And the busy middle aged crowd just wants the bank not to make mistakes, make it easy to do business, and leave them alone. Knowing your preferences can help you choose the right institution for you. ###

Butterflies, Bugs, Spiders, and Scorpions -- Oh my!

Over 100 children released 85 butterflies, from special paper envelopes, and 3,000 ladybugs, from little bug shaped boxes, in Woodland Park on Wednesday afternoon, June 23, 2011.

The event featured NJ Batman with a live show where he captivated the children and adults with millipedes, scorpions, tarantulas, Madagascar hissing cockroaches, etc.

Children crafted a butterfly by painting a coffee filter. When dried, they were shaped by JWC members into a butterfly for the children to take home.

Additional activities included face painting, tattoos, games, bug story time, etc.

This third annual event was sponsored by the Junior Women's Club of Hasbrouck Heights, with proceeds to benefit the Valerie Fund.

Just Around the Corner From Garfield Wal-Mart

Jr. Police Academy Starts Off with a Bang

“Get Down! Get Down!” Patrick Devlin, Lieutenant of the Lyndhurst Police Department’s Special Response Team, yelled as he and his team stormed into Franklin School Gym.

He was met by screams, as an unsuspecting group of kids bewilderedly dropped to the floor early Monday morning - just a normal day for Recruit Class 12 of the Hasbrouck Heights Junior Police Academy.

From June 27 to July 1, 2011, incoming Hasbrouck Heights freshmen had an action-packed week. They learned through trips, lectures, videos, and hands on activities what it really takes to be a police officer.

“I didn’t see it coming, that’s for sure. At first I thought it was real,” Kristen Inglesby, a recruit who participated in the program, said about the Lyndhurst Special Response Team’s demonstration.

The HHPD Jr. Police Academy, started in August 2000, has reached over 400 kids over the past 12 years.

The first year only 18 recruits participated. This year, 46 recruits graduated from the program and joined the Junior Police Auxiliary. Junior Police Auxiliary members can be seen working at Town Day in the fall, helping out at the fireworks, or assisting Mike Stillman and Sergeant Joseph Rinke, instructors, to run the Jr. Academies during the summer.

The week-long program is roughly modeled after the actual police training programs that must be completed to become a police officer.

It gives recruits a taste of what becoming a police officer is really like. The program’s main goals are to strengthen the relationships between police officers and kids and to hopefully spark interest in law enforcement as a career.

For Joe Armeli, who participated in the program in 2002, it was definitely successful in sparking an interest. Armeli is now a police officer with the Hasbrouck Heights Police Department.

“The program’s come far, it’s come very far,” Stillman said, “The first year we had only 18 kids, now we have half the 8th Grade.”

This year’s academy kicked off to an exciting start when the Lyndhurst Special Response Team performed their surprise demonstration. Captain John Valente and Lt. Patrick Devlin taught the recruits about the weapons the team carries and trains with on a daily basis.

The recruits were taught the proper way to hold guns (without ammunition, of course), all about flash bang grenades, and were even allowed to wear the team’s 60-pound bulletproof vest.

They later learned basic self-defense with The Dojo

Martial Arts School. Sensei Dan taught not only how to punch and kick, but the importance of being responsible leaders and how to handle dangerous situations. He used the wise words of Gandhi and the tactics of General Patton of World War II as examples.

“With great power comes great responsibility,” seems to be their motto.

On Tuesday, the group visited The Bergen County Law and Public Safety Institute in Mahwah where they witnessed demonstrations from the Bergen County K-9 Unit and a firearms demonstration by the Bergen County S.W.A.T. team. After, they had a chance to view the weapons close-up, received a lesson on different kinds of bullets, silencers, and scopes.

Later in the day, the group took a chilling tour of the Bergen County Jail. The tour was practically silent as the group stomachached information on the jail, passed by prisoners in their cells, and even got to stand in an empty jail cell themselves. The group heard the story of a young prisoner and got an understanding of what a day in the life of a prisoner really feels like.

“I never want to go there again,” said one recruit.

Wednesday morning the recruits met at the Heights police firing range where Rinke, a firearms instructor, gave a weapons safety presentation before shooting melons, coconuts, plastic bottles and even a raw turkey.

Stillman then used the targets to explain ballistics. He displayed the entrance and exit wounds on each item and showed the recruits different ammunition. He explained how the bullets mushroom while being shot through an object.

“The program helps the kids to see the cops as people, not just guys in uniforms busting their chops. It humanizes them,” Stillman said.

A large portion of the program relies on teamwork and leadership. The group together is called a company.

The company is divided into six squads, each with a squad leader. The squads are divided into 2 platoons, each with a platoon leader and finally there is one company commander.

Each squad participated in team building exercises such as communicating by walkie-talkies or moving together on giant skis, all leading up to an Iron Man team-building completion at the end of the week.

“Not only did I learn a lot of things I didn’t know about police work, but I got to be with my friends and have fun while doing it too!” Kerry DeAngelo, recruit, said.

During the end of the week the recruits put their knowledge to the test conducting motor vehicle stops and competing to win the Iron Man.

They were visited by the DEA and had a chance to talk with retired FBI Special Agent Robert Bukowski, who has participated in the program for years. The week finally ended with a BBQ at the Police Department.

“It creates a bond, or tightens the relationship that I, as well as the other officers who help out, have with the kids,” Rinke said.

All 46 recruits graduated Friday night and were handed their certificates making them official members of the Junior Auxiliary.

Chief Michael Colaneri, Mayor Rose Heck and Councilman Dave Gonzalez commended the recruits on their hard work and dedication throughout the week.

Chief Colaneri spoke of how at first, other Departments believed Hasbrouck Heights was considered too small to uphold such a program, but the large participation seems to prove that wrong every year.

He went on to say the program’s success is only possible because of the full and unique cooperation with the Hasbrouck Heights school system.

“It was a wonderful opportunity. They all stood up to the occasion and we’re very proud of them,” Heck said. Story by Samantha Sproviero. Photos by Allie Robitaille. ###

Open Cockpit Day

On Saturday, June 25, 2011, the Aviation Hall of Fame and Museum opened aircraft and their cockpits of many of the museum airplanes, helicopters and a fire truck for visitors to sit in, pretend to fly and experience real "hands on" cockpit understanding.

People, young and old, learned from qualified pilots the history of these special aircraft, how the flight systems work, how pilots fly and what the controls and instrumentations do.

Aircraft included the cockpits of a unique 1950 Martin 202 airliner, a rare Lockheed-designed Bush Plane, a Cobra gun ship helicopter, a Sikorsky Coast Guard rescue helicopter and the control cab of an Air-port Rescue and Fire-Fighting truck. The next open cockpit day is scheduled for Saturday, September 3, 2011.

Founded in 1972, the Aviation Hall of Fame & Museum of New Jersey is dedicated to the preservation of the Garden State's distinguished, two-century aviation and space heritage. The men and women, whose outstanding aeronautical achievements have brought worldwide recognition to the state, are enshrined in the Hall of Fame. The Port Authority of NY & NJ generously supports the Hall of Fame by providing the space for the museum.

Looking for interesting work? Volunteers are always needed to help in the Museum and with special projects. Call 201-288-6344 for details. ###

Summer Safety

- The Wood-Ridge Fire Department offers these summer safety tips regarding hazardous materials.
- Store gasoline in safety cans manufactured and labeled for that purpose.
 - Gasoline should never be stored inside your home because vapors can travel to a flame source and ignite. Gasoline should be stored outside, or in a well ventilated shed.
 - Don't refuel lawn mowers, trimmers, edgers or other gasoline powered equipment while hot because the fumes may ignite and start a flash fire. Allow the equipment to cool. Use a funnel to prevent spills.
 - Keep fertilizers and pool chemicals away from gasoline, oil and fuels. Pool chemicals (chlorites) and fertilizers (nitrates) are strong oxidizers and react violently with fuel vapors (hydrocarbons).
 - Powdered and pellet chlorine should be kept in a cool, dry place. If water enters a chlorine container, it can react and possibly explode. Never add water to chlorine -- add chlorine to water to prevent a splash or violent reaction.
 - Pesticides should not be accessible to children or pets and should be kept in tightly closed containers in a cool, dry place.
 - It is important to follow the instructions on the label for use and application. If exposed to pesticides, rinse the affected materials off immediately and seek emergency treatment. Bring the container with you to the medical facility if possible. ###

Sturgeon Moon

The August full moon appears on Saturday, August 13, 2011, at 14:57. It is called the "Full Sturgeon Moon."

According to "The Farmer's Almanac," the fishing tribes are given credit for the naming of this moon, since sturgeon, a large fish of the Great Lakes and other major bodies of water, were most readily caught during August.

A few tribes knew it as the "Full Red Moon" because, as the Moon rises, it appears reddish through any sultry haze. It was also called the "Green Corn Moon" or "Grain Moon."

The Native American Indians of the northern and eastern United States kept track of the seasons by giving a name to each recurring full moon. European settlers followed the custom. ###

Thunderous Effects

The darkened stadium was still for a moment, before the thunderous, spectacular light show thrilled spectators on Thursday, June 30, 2011, at the Hasbrouck Heights Lions Club-sponsored 27th Annual Fireworks Program.

During the afternoon, the contractor, International Fireworks, with a crew of eight, took seven hours to set up the displays at the Hasbrouck Heights Minor Little League field.

Fireworks were set in firing tubes or as pre-packaged "cakes." All pyrotechnics were covered in foil. This prevents sparks from prematurely igniting other shells and cakes.

Fire prevention officials reviewed the mechanics of the display to insure compliance of fire codes and accepted industry procedures.

Detonation was either by flares or electrically according to a prepared shot list.

The dazzling pyrotechnic display lasted approximately 30 minutes and included about 6,500 shots. About 500 shots were used in the finale.

Fireworks featured included: Brocade of golden rain, ring shells, gilliland green, star criss-cross effect, silver whirls, crackle effects, reports, whistles, etc.

Adding to the excitement were two cakes -- quick salute of 50 bangs in 2 seconds and quick whistle -- 100 whistles in two seconds.

During the display the Hasbrouck Heights Fire Department, along with Mutual Aid Departments from Carlstadt FD & EMS, Little Ferry FD, Lodi FD, Moonachie FD & EMS, S. Hackensack EMS, Wallington FD and Wood-Ridge FD, were positioned at strategic locations as a safety precaution.

All shells were detonated within the safety area. The contractor inspected each tube for unspent rounds.

Mutual Aid fire departments checked the general safety area. Special attention was given to the firing zone -- checking for unexploded rounds and watered down smoldering debris.

Prior to the pyrotechnic show, a brief program was held. The Master of Ceremonies and event coordinator was Lion Thomas E. Mason Jr.

The Hasbrouck Heights Police Department and VFW Post 4591 Honor Guards presented The Colors, followed by Florianna Heun singing the "National Anthem."

The Invocation was given by Pastor Iraida Ruiz DePorras (First United Methodist Church). Mayor Rose Heck and Bergen County Clerk Kathleen A. Donovan made remarks. Florianna

Heun sang "America the Beautiful." A 50/50 was held with three winners sharing the prize money.

The Fireworks Program included a Tribute to Hasbrouck Heights Lion Victor George Braun.

Fun Time Entertainment provided music, two inflatable amusements and dunk tank which were located on the practice field.

Sponsors that provided extra fireworks included: Costa Memorial Home, Crow's Nest, Dunkin' Donuts, Holiday Inn, HUMC, IHOP of Hasbrouck Heights, Kundert Volvo, Otterstedt Insurance Agency, Shop-Rite of Lodi, and TD Bank. ###

Patriotic Walk in Woodland Park

For the first time, the Annual Children's Patriotic Parade was held at Woodland Park on July 4, 2011. The program was led by Anthony Bernice, with remarks by Mayor Rose Heck.

After registration, the parade proceeded from the pavilion along an asphalt path around the Park.

Prizes were awarded in the categories of patriotic, most original and most artistic to: costumed children on foot, wagons and tricycles, carriages, strollers, etc., decorated bicycles, floats, and grandparents' corner, with carriages and children on foot. Helmets were required for those on bicycles.

Prizes awarded: First Prize, Second Prize, Third Prize and Honorable Mention. All participants received medals.

All classifications and categories were judged prior to the parade. Registration was limited to children up to 10 years of age attending Hasbrouck Heights schools, excluding the grandparents' corner.

Dr. Michael Perillo provided ice cold water and gift bags. This annual event was sponsored by the Mayor's Celebrations Committee with Pat Link, Dorothy and Anthony Bernice as the main coordinators, with the help of many volunteers. ###

Boys & Girls Club of Lodi Celebrates 60th Anniversary

Mission

Serving the area, The Boys & Girls Club of Lodi was chartered in 1958. Its mission is to enable all young people from 5 to 18 years of age to realize their full potential as productive, responsible and caring citizens.

They provide a safe place to learn and grow with life enhancing programs and character development experience, with a sense of belonging, a sense of usefulness, a sense of inclusions and a sense of competence including leadership development, education and career development, health and life skills, sports, fitness and recreation.

History

Founded in 1951 by Frank A. Plescia, whose dream was to enable all young people, especially those with the most need, to reach their full potential as productive, caring, responsible citizens.

During that time, many parents were too occupied working in defense plants to help support their families, it left their boys to wander on their own without controlled supervision.

Starting with approximately 80 members, the story of the Boys Club of Lodi is one of drama, struggle and dedication to serve a humanitarian purpose.

Those who felt a need in their hearts to help the youth of Lodi struggled selflessly, giving of themselves, their time, energy and care to build the foundation for the present Boys & Girls Club of Lodi building.

Through various contributions and a grant from the Hayden Foundation in 1954, the dream of a building became a reality. Erected in 1956 and dedicated in October 1958, it quickly became apparent the first building was much too small to accommodate all the members.

Expansion plans began and included an Olympic-style swimming pool and additional general space.

A capital campaign for the addition began and with another generous donation from the Hayden Foundation, the new expansion was dedicated on June 4, 1969.

In 1980, the Board of Directors changed the name to the Boys & Girls Club of Lodi.

On September 16, 1999, Hurricane Floyd devastated the Club causing an estimated $500,000 in damage.

The Nor'easter on April 15, 2007, raised the Saddle River 15 feet over its banks, causing over $1 million in damage.

Due to the generosity of Paul Patti, the NJ Nets, Unilever, Lou March, Columbia Bank and many others, the Club was able to rebuild and expansion was the next hurdle for the Club.

The Nor'easter on March 13-14, 2010 caused a foot and a half of water in the basement, but did not reach the first floor. Snow plows were used to plow the parking lot and about $2,000 to sanitize it.

The current board of directors decided to expand into Hackensack in 2003 and on May 17, 2008, began operations on January 1, 2009.

After a year of struggle in Hackensack, the Club won a bid to operate a brand new facility within the Hackensack Housing Authority and held its grand opening and dedication on October 7, 2010, thus adding 125 new youth members -- bringing the combined member count to 1,200 in 2011. (Facility services 1,700 children of which 350 visit daily.)

Despite the challenges of continual flooding of the Saddle River and a poor economy, the Club has been able to continue, progress and serve more youth. Over the years, thousands of boys and girls have taken advantage of the Club.

Programs

• Aquatics/Swim Lessons: The Club offers an Olympic-style heated pool (82°-84°) with handicapped lift. Swim lessons and water safety instructor courses are available. Adult swim and private pool parties are available. The pool is also used by area schools for their swim teams.

• Triple Play Sports Camp: Designed to build leadership, responsibility, sportsmanship and teamwork.

• After School: Structured supervised activities, homework programs, etc.

Upcoming fund-raisers include a "Mid-Summer Crab Feast" at the Elan on August 18, 2011, "Cruise for a Cause" departing Hoboken, on September 17, etc.

The Annual Awards Dinner is held in March.

The Lodi facility is 75,000 sq. ft., with an annual budget of about $2.1 million. They employ about 50 full and part-time employees, plus volunteers.

The Club is located at 460 Passaic Avenue, Lodi NJ 07644. Facilities are available for rentals.

Kiwanis Seek 2011 Nominations for Good Neighbors

In 1994 the FTD (Florists' Transworld Delivery) designated the first Wednesday in September as "Good Neighbor Day". This year the FTD will be celebrating its 17th Annual Good Neighbor Day event on Wednesday, September 7.

In 2004, the Kiwanis Club of Hasbrouck Heights and Teterboro embraced this celebration and presented its first "Good Neighbor Awards." This is the seventh year that the Kiwanis Club would like to honor those many "Good Neighbors" from our community.

Do you know a good neighbor who is always willing to lend a helping hand, give advice, listen to your problems, or maybe drive you to shopping etc; someone who is not looking for monetary gain or personal reward; or someone who has extended himself or herself to you in a crisis? If you do, now is the time to have him or her recognized.

Nominees should be residents or work in Hasbrouck Heights who have not received a lot of publicity for their volunteer efforts. They need not be a member of a service club, political party, a Church group or other type of non-profit organization. Age is not a factor in selecting the winners.

The Kiwanis Club of Hasbrouck Heights would like to identify those many "Good Neighbors" from our community. Awards will be presented at a reception on Wednesday, September 7, 2011, at 7:00 p.m.

To submit a nomination, send an essay of no more the 200 words describing the nominee's good deeds. Be sure to include his/her name and address as well as yours no later than Friday, August 19 to: Kiwanis Good Neighbor Awards, 257 Roosevelt Avenue, Hasbrouck Heights, NJ 07604 ###

American Legion Distributes Awards

The James B. Scarr Post 106 American Legion presented their annual $1,000 scholarship to Hasbrouck Heights senior Richard Miles.

They also awarded cash prizes to the three winners of their Annual Essay Contest. First Prize was awarded to Tiffany Amariuta, Second Prize to Samantha Issa and Third Prize to Marissa Romano.

The essay question this year was, "How can we Keep Patriotism Alive." Some of the suggestions made in their essays were: proudly display the American Flag outside your home; simply put bumper stickers on your car that read "Support Our Troops;" personally thank a soldier or send a gift or letter of appreciation overseas; encourage schools to remind students of the importance of historical events; help students recognize the freedoms they have in this country that are denied in other countries; and encourage people to have respect for our flag when it is displayed, saluted or passes by in a parade. Story by Peter Gallo Jr. ###

Wood-Ridge Lions Work Detail Helps Get Camp Marcella Ready

Early each June a volunteer work detail from the Wood-Ridge Lions Club drives to Camp Marcella, the Camp for Blind Children in Rockaway, NJ, to prepare the dining hall and kitchen for the upcoming camping season.

This past June 5, 2011, kitchen counter tops were being scrubbed, windows cleaned, and the dining room floor getting waxed and polished by an energetic work detail made up of Lions, along with their sons and their friends. Their cleaning effort at the Camp is an annual Service to a Lions State Sight Project that concludes the Club's activities for the year.

The Wood-Ridge Lions Club annually supports Camp Marcella with a donation from their many fund-raising events during the year. The Club is especially recognized for funding the building of a pool house when the Camp swimming pool was being renovated in 2005.

Camp Marcella is always looking for campers for next year. If you know of a blind or visually-impaired child that may wish to take part in this wonderful camping experience, please contact Paula Tarantino at 201-709-4944 or pdgpaula@comcast.net ###

The Wood-Ridge Lions Club completed another outstanding year culminating with the installation of new officers on June 10, 2011, at Lasoni's in North Arlington.

In the 2010-2011 year the Club made donations in excess of $42,000 to Club causes.

At the May Board of Directors' meeting, the members voted to contribute $3,000 to each of the following: Camp Marcella, NJ Blind Citizens, The Lions Eye Bank of NJ, The Gus Hoene Rehabilitation Center and The Foundation for Fighting Blindness.

Farmers' Market Returns

Jersey Fresh season is in full swing! The Hasbrouck Heights 11th Farmers' Market began on June 21, 2011. The market will continue every Tuesday, from noon to 6:00 p.m., until late September, at the corner of The Boulevard and Central Avenue.

Hasbrouck Heights has one of New Jersey's 144 community farmers' markets, featuring the freshest, best-tasting produce grown by our state's farmers who are reporting excellent quality crops this season.

Heights Farmers' Market is "growing" and is scheduled to host over a dozen vendors.

George Asprocolas is back with a huge array of fresh produce, all grown in New Jersey. His 50 acre farm, located in Millstone in Monmouth County, sells its produce at about 20 different markets across the state.

Other vendors include: Dr. Pickle, Johnny One-Stop

Bakery, Johnny Meatballs Cart, Hoboken Farms, Phinhas Farms, X-Calibur knife and scissor sharpening, etc., with additional vendors expected as the season unfolds.

Senior coupon day was scheduled for July 14.

According to Chamber President Ray Vorisek, "The market is a neat one-stop experience where people can get Jersey Fresh produce, just picked earlier that day, and maybe shop at nearby stores."

Hasbrouck Heights businesses and community organizations are invited to set up a free table for one Tuesday afternoon during the 2011 Market. Limited positions are available. Call Ray at 201-288-5464 for more information.

During Farmers' Market days, Boulevard businesses are permitted to take advantage of "Sidewalk Sale" opportunities and set up tables in front of their stores. ###

Local Seniors Share Bus with Bogota Seniors

Skyrocketing gas prices have made chartering a bus for a senior trip too costly, since the cost must be shared equally by the number of seniors who sign up for the trip. Likewise, the more that sign up, reduces the amount each person must pay.

Keeping this in mind, twenty-eight members of the Leisure Club and twenty members of the Bogota Senior Citizens Club shared a bus to travel to the Hunterdon Hills Playhouse.

The trip took place on July 12, 2011.

Both groups enjoyed each other's camaraderie. There was singing, joking and general conversation between both groups.

The Hunterdon Hills Playhouse is a very popular dinner theater trip for seniors in New York, New Jersey and Pennsylvania. The playhouse is located in Hampton, NJ and is only a little more than one hour away from Hasbrouck Heights.

Along with a choice of five hot entrees, unlimited homemade desserts and excellent service, seniors had the opportunity to see professional live theatre.

Four men and four women sang and danced to the music of the twentieth century. There were also many comedy skits and an unforgettable, comical rendition of the 1939 song "Three Little Fishies." Story by Peter Gallo Jr. ###

Heights & W-R Teens to Attend World Youth Day in Spain

Miss Lauren Baghdo from Wood-Ridge and Miss Caitlin D'Angelo from Hasbrouck Heights will be traveling to Madrid, Spain in August to take part in the World Youth Day (WYD). The two girls are members of the ACC (Assumption/Corpus Christi) Teen Ministry.

They will be joined by forty-five other teens from the Archdiocese of Newark. The last WYD attracted 223,000 registered pilgrims, including 110,000 from 170 nations.

Felician Sister Marilyn Minter addressed the ACC Teen Ministry about past World Youth Days and encouraged all who could attend to do so this year. Lauren and Caitlin, with the support of their parents, made the decision to participate.

Both girls are Juniors. Lauren attends the Bergen County Technical High School in Teterboro, and Caitlin attends Immaculate Conception High School in Lodi.

World Youth Day is a youth-oriented Catholic Church event. It is celebrated at the diocesan level annually and at a week-long international level every two to three years at different locations. While the event itself celebrates the Catholic faith, the invitation to attend extends to all youth, regardless of religious convictions.

This year the World Youth Day international gathering will take place in Madrid, Spain, August 16-21, 2011. Pope Benedict will join the young people for a vigil August 20 and Mass August 21, 2011.

Lauren remarked "I believe my pilgrimage to Spain will allow God to enter into my life even more than He is already. This experience will be a powerful moment for me, when I see the Holy Father and all the other teens from around the world, because I will realize that I am not alone in this world as a practicing Catholic."

The United Nations proclaimed the year 1985 as the International Youth Year. It was held to focus attention on issues of concern to and relating to youth. The International Year of Youth was held in 2010. World Youth Day is not associated with International Youth Day or any of the international observance days.

In an effort to recognize the growing youth of the Church, Blessed Pope John Paul II in 1985 invited them from around the world to travel to Rome for Palm Sunday. He declared that day to be the first World Youth Day, and that the youth should go back to their home towns and communities and celebrate their new-found fellowship and continue the tradition for each year to follow.

In the past twenty-five years, World Youth Day International has been held in Sydney, Australia; Cologne, Germany; Toronto, Canada; Rome, Italy; Paris, France; Manila, Philippines; Denver, Colorado; Czestochowa, Poland; Santiago de Compostela, Spain; and Buenos Aires, Argentina. Story by Peter Gallo Jr. ###

First Reformed Church Honors Three at Annual Congregational Dinner

Saturday evening, June 11, 2011, was a very special night for three of the First Reformed Church's busiest members. Two of them even had to cook their own dinner. The 2011 Congregational Awards were presented to Carol Earle, Estella Hackel and Clark Paolini.

Carol Earle: One of Carol's many talents is managing the Church's assets as the Church treasurer. She does this through careful accounting and her wise council.

Carol is also known for her baking and cooking skills. She has prepared a variety of foods including homemade pizza, brownies, cranberry relish and zucchini bread.

An Elder, Carol has served as a Sunday school teacher and is currently chair of the Property Committee. She also serves on the Board of Directors of the Reformed Church Women's Ministry.

Estella Hackel: In the sixty-five years since joining First Reformed Church April 18, 1946, Estella has served as co-director of summer vacation Bible School, a Sunday school teacher, Superintendent of Sunday School, a Deacon, member of the Reformed Church Women's Ministries, Clerk of Consistory and coordinator of the spring and fall rummage sales.

She is currently an Ordained Elder, President of the Reformed Church Women's ministries and an alto in the choir.

You can also find her on the kitchen crew for all dinners, coordinator of the monthly Communion service and alternate Elder representative to Classis.

She is a mother, grandmother and great-grandmother and has been married to her husband, Gerry, for 53 years. Do you need help? Estella will be there.

A. Clark Paolini: Clark has been serving First Reformed for the past 51 years. Pastor Dianna has summed up his accomplishments that currently include Vice President of Consistory, Elder, Deacon, chef, engineer, craftsman, technical advisor, choir bass, landscaper, artist, and pastoral sounding board.

Every room in the Church has benefited from Clark's talents, from the decorative dinner lighting to the Church's banner sign, that Clark designed as an awning professional.

He created a Pentecost banner on a wish from Pastor Dianna.

He also created special torches and a stand for this year's Maundy Thursday worship service.

As the minister indicates "First Reformed Church will benefit from the many talents of Clark Paolini for generations to come." Story by June Quarishi. ###

Summer in the Psalms

Some people "summer at the Jersey shore," others "summer in the Hamptons." This year, members of Holy Trinity Lutheran Church are spending the "Summer in the Psalms."

During August into early September, Holy Trinity will be plunging into the depths of ten of the 150 psalms in the Psalter. There is no better place to begin to know sacred word and God than to begin with the Psalms. In all times and circumstances, the best advice for someone who is looking for God's word to them, is to open the Psalms to any page and just begin reading.

Sooner or later, you will find something that speaks to your situation and that seems to be speaking directly to you. So, Holy Trinity will be splashing and soaking in the Psalms during the weeks of summer, trusting in their ability to address us in all conditions of life.

Each week, a new video meditation on one of the Psalms assigned for the Sundays in summer will be offered on the prayer ministries page of their website, www.holytrinityhasbrouckheights.com/#/prayer-ministries.

The weekly psalm reflection or meditation will be written and recorded by members of Holy Trinity with a video produced by Pastor Susan. A link to the website will be sent to members of the online prayer group.

If you would like to "Summer in the Psalms," please send an e-mail request to Pastor Susan at pastorsusannj@aol.com. An e-mail with a link to the new weekly meditation will then be sent to you each Friday through September 14. You may also just log on to the website at holytrinityhasbrouckheights.com and select the Prayer Ministries link. ###

Meet the New Pastor at Assumption Church

On Friday, July 1, 2011, Rev. Richard Mucowski, O.F.M, EdD, PhD, a Franciscan Friar of Holy Name Province who has worked at FrancisCare in Elmwood Park, NJ, will serve as pastor of Assumption of Our Blessed Lady Church in Wood-Ridge.

Assisting him will be Rev. Julian Jagudilla, O.F.M. M.Div. parochial vicar, Brother Paul Keenan, O.F.M, MSW, pastoral associate, and Deacons Rev. Mr. Nicholas Valdez and Rev. Mr. Francis Materia.

Rev. Brian P. Cullinane, O.F.M., who has served as pastor for the last nine years has been assigned to St. Anthony Shrine in Boston and Rev. Paul G. Sinnema, O.F.M., who has served for more than nine years as parochial vicar, has retired and will reside at St. Anthony of Padua in Butler, New Jersey.

He will join Rev. Thomas P. Kelly, O.F.M., Rev. Cassian Miles, O.F.M. and former pastor Rev. James W. Czerwinski O.F.M., who also reside there.

Father Richard was raised in Philadelphia, Pennsylvania. He and his older sister, Dorothy Mucowski Marek, were born to Ukrainian immigrant parents (now deceased) in that same city. One of his elementary school teachers told him that he'd be lucky if he graduated from high school because he was born on "the wrong side of the tracks," meaning his family had no others to set an example for him to follow. You be the judge!

Fr. Richard was attracted to the Franciscan Friars after he made a discernment retreat at the end of his freshman year of college.

The Franciscan Friars encouraged him in his academic pursuit and his dream of becoming a teacher. He earned the BA Degree in Philosophy, MA Degree in Theology, MA

Degree in Sociology and Anthropology, MS Degree in Guidance and Counseling, Ed. Degree in Counseling and Student Personnel Services, and a Ph.D. in Clinical Psychology with Post-Doctoral studies in Neuropsychology at Thomas Jefferson Medical School in Philadelphia, PA.

His brief high school social studies and guidance counselor career ended when his religious superiors asked him to consider teaching Sociology at Siena College.

He quipped: "I hated Sociology; it was so dry and boring to me." He asked if he could study counseling and psychology. This really caught his interest and his superiors were over a barrel. They wanted him to stay teaching at the college level. To do so, he now required the doctoral degree.

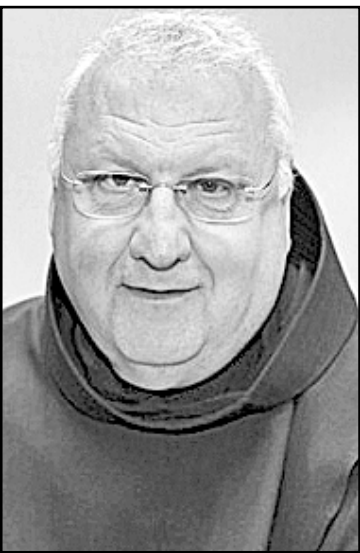

Fr. Richard has been a college professor and has been the president of Saint Mary College in Leavenworth, Kansas and was the first Ukrainian American priest to head a four-year Catholic college when he was inaugurated president of Walsh College (now University) in North Canton, Ohio.

During the late 1990s he also served as a member of the Board of Trustees, first at St. Bonaventure University and later at Mount St. Clare College, Clinton, Iowa.

While he was on the Board of Trustees at St. Bonaventure University, he was recruited by his alma mater and served as its Executive Vice President, and Secretary of the Board of Trustees.

Prior to serving in university administration, Fr. Richard advanced to the rank of Professor of Psychology and Chair of that department at Siena College, NY. During this time in his life he and his colleagues published in professional journals of higher education, counseling, and psychology.

Subsequent to his selection to be Pastor at the Assumption Church, Fr. Richard worked as the Clinical Director and Licensed Clinical Psychologist at FrancisCare, a counseling service in Elmwood Park, and a Clinical Forensic Mental Health Clinician assigned UMDNJ to work at Northern State Prison responsible for psychological treatment and assessment of inmates and conducting pre-parole psychological evaluations.

He is also a psychological consultant to the Metropolitan Tribunal of the Roman Catholic Archdiocese of Newark, Dioceses of Camden, Metuchen, Paterson and the Byzantine Eparchy of Passaic, NJ.

In this capacity he provides psychological assessments of those who present their cases for annulment of a marriage to the Church court (Tribunal) to evaluate a case regarding the psychological basis for the validity of the sacrament of Marriage.

Persons, who believe that their marriages were invalid in the eyes of God and the Church, petition the Tribunal to declare their marriage null and void. The work of the Tribunal mainly involves the process of investigating and presenting the facts of the case to the Bishop.

(Rev. Dr.) Fr. Rich Mucowski and his pastoral team will be officially installed by Bishop John W. Flesey, STD, Regional Bishop for Bergen County, as pastor on Sunday, October 2, 2011 at the 11:00 a.m. Mass.

What parishioners should do after July 1, 2011 is pray for him, introduce yourselves to him, show him that he is welcomed, teach him about the needs and concerns of those in his care, support and counsel him regarding any changes he may propose, and assist him by participating and being active in your Church.

Feel free to introduce him to your friends and neighbors (and as he said: "Remind me over and over if I forget your name until I get it right.") Story by Peter Gallo Jr. ###

Knights Honor Their Priests

Each year the Councils in New Jersey host dinners to honor the men of the cloth. These dinners are conducted in each Diocese, with all Priests of the Diocese invited as guests of the Knights of Columbus.

The evening is open to all Knights and their wives, and is a great way for the Knights to show the Priests how proud they are of them.

On Tuesday, May 24, 2011, the Knights of Columbus of the Archdiocese of Newark hosted their Fifth Annual Pride in Our Priests dinner at the Fiesta in Wood-Ridge.

More than 500 men and women were in attendance.

Local priests from Wood-Ridge, Hasbrouck Heights and Lodi were the guests of their local Knights of Columbus Councils.

At the dinner, State Deputy Herbert Meyer acknowledged gratitude for the cooperation given him during his time as an officer in the state.

He then introduced the new state officers who were elected in May and assumed their duties on July 1st.

They are State Secretary Elect Andrew Lipenta, State Treasurer Elect Bruce DeMolli, State Advocate Elect Anthony Moskal and State Warden Elect Robert Hatler. Story and photo by Peter Gallo Jr. ###

Reflections

Living Purposefully

Rev. Bill Hegedus, Pastor
Bible Baptist Church of Hasbrouck Heights

In one of King David's Psalms, David declares what many men have thought over the ages..."When I consider your heavens, the work of your fingers, the moon and the stars, which you have set in place, what is mankind that you are mindful of them, human beings that you care for them?" (Psalm 8:3,4)

As David looked at all God has created, he felt like nothing. He felt so insignificant in comparison with God's awesome works of creation. Who has not asked these same questions..."Who am I?...What is my place in the grand plan of life?"

God's response to David's question is the same as God's response to us. In Psalm 8, God tells David that He has a grand purpose for our lives and a specific reason for creating us exactly as He did.

Let me share with you one great thought that has helped me in this area of identity over the years:

Learn to Embrace Your True Identity. In this computer age we hear a lot about identity theft and how to avoid it. Identity theft is not new. It is Satan's number one strategy. He wants to steal your awareness of who you really are. He wants you to settle for much less that what you were made for.

In verse 5 of Psalm 8, God answers the identity question—man (you and I) have been made "a little lower than the angels." The word "angels" is the Hebrew translation of "Elohim (God)." Of course God here is referring to man in his unfallen state, his true identity as purposed by God. David declares that man is the "crown and glory" of God's creation, bearing God's image and being capable of intimate fellowship with his Creator.

Instead of living in our true identity many live their lives and try to find purpose and meaning in fulfilling the sinful desires of their bodies instead of embracing their true intended identity.

How can our true identity be restored and be renewed? There is only one way, through the work of Jesus Christ. Paul declares in Ephesians 2:4-6 "But because of his great love for us, God, who is rich in mercy, 5 made us alive with Christ even when we were dead in transgressions (our true identity was lost) — it is by grace you have been saved. 6 And God raised us up with Christ and seated us with him in the heavenly realms in Christ Jesus," The Apostle Paul declares that through Christ we have a new identity, "positioned in the heavenlies," in Christ Jesus.

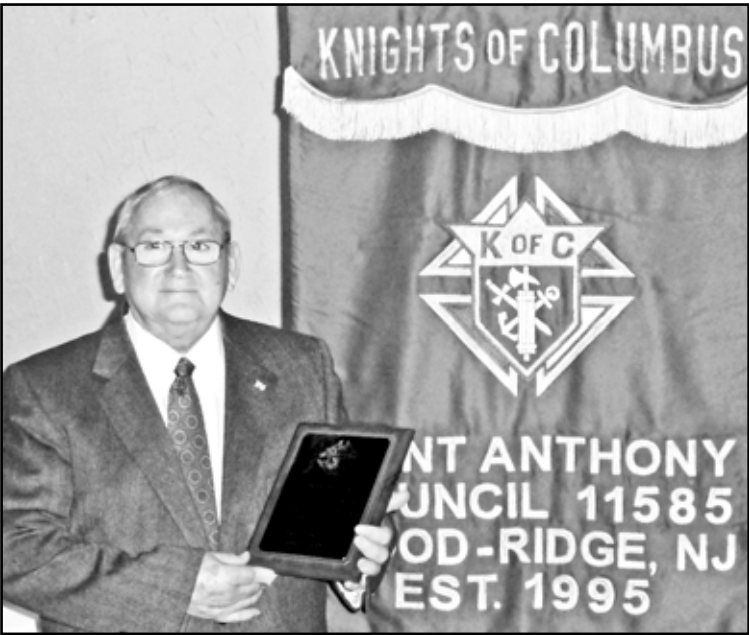

When I think of this truth, I am reminded of the Disney movie, "The Lion King" when Simba, the heir to the throne of the kingdom is falsely blamed for the death of his father, Mufasa.

Simba runs off in guilt and fear, giving up on his dream of ever becoming king. One day Mufasa appears to Simba in a vision and says "Simba, have you forgotten me?" Simba says "But, Father, how could I have ever forgotten you?" His father replies "You have forgotten who you are and, therefore, you have forgotten me."

Remember who you were created to be. Embrace the grace of Jesus Christ and find the true purpose and meaning of life. ###

2011 Knight of the Year

At the Father's Day Communion Breakfast held on June 19, 2011, at the Fiesta, SK Peter J. Gallo Jr. was honored by the St. Anthony Council #11585 by being selected as "Knight of the Year." Also receiving accolades were SK Anthony Giuseffi and SK/Deacon Frank Materia.

SK Tony Giuseffi, a former "Knight of the Year," was recognized for his ability to spread the word and encourage many residents to participate in the many activities run by the local council. At the young age of 96, he alone has the ability to sell at least 40% of all tickets to each fundraiser.

SK/Deacon Frank Materia, a past Grand Knight, was presented with a gift from the council in acknowledgment of his many years of service to the council and his ordination to the permanent diaconate. Anyone who has heard his sermons realizes that he is well suited for his new role.

The St. Anthony Council was established in 1995. SK Peter Gallo has been the Financial Secretary for his council since 1998. He is a Life member of the Knights of Columbus and has been the Financial Secretary to all but the first Grand Knight of the council; also from July 1, 2006 to June 30, 2008 he served as its Grand Knight.

SK Gallo was recognized for his experience and knowledge of council history. He is also noted for giving his opinions and advice (whether asked for or not). The "Knight of the Year" plaque was presented to him by GK Donald Callahan and District Deputy Russell Petrocelli. Story and photo by Marie Gallo. ###

The Feast of Corpus Christi

Parishioners of Corpus Christi Church celebrated its Feast Day beginning on Friday, June 24, 2011, with Solemn Vespers followed by 40 Hour Devotion to the Blessed Sacrament.

Following Sunday noon Mass, a procession with the Blessed Sacrament went around the block, and concluded at the entrance to the Church. Altar servers led the procession followed by parishioners in front and behind the canopy carried by members of the Knights of Columbus which accompanied the priest carrying the Eucharist in a "Monstrance."

Although the Celebration of Corpus Christi has been held for years, this was the third year that a picnic was held on Church grounds upon conclusion of the service.

This event also served as a farewell to Father Jerzy Zaslon (Father Jurek), who served at Corpus Christi for three years. Fr. Jurek has been appointed Administrator of Holy Rosary in Jersey City.

Aids to Daily Living... Let Me Count the Ways

We all want our lives to be a little easier and winning the lottery would do that, but the odds that most of us will hit it big are quite slim. So we look to other means that will help us thru the day, hence the name "Aids to Daily Living."

Let's start where we all start in the morning, in bed. There are bedrails of many sorts. Bedrails have more than the function to keep someone from rolling out of bed; they also help you "get a grip" in order to get out of bed.

They can be the type that run the length of the mattress, or just half-way, cane-type or handle-type, and there is also something called a bed-rope ladder to help pull yourself up.

There are also an assortment of pillows (not the ones with decorative doodads and tassels), but ones that are specially designed to give support to the neck, legs, and to use post-hip surgery, etc.

Also for the bed, there are reusable, absorbent bedpads, lambswool mattress covers, egg crate mattress overlays, and gel cushions.

Talk about getting comfy in bed! But seriously, perhaps one or two items just may make a difference in your sleep or helping someone who spends a lot of time in bed due to illness feel more comfortable.

Just a quick mention of some other bed related items: over the bed tables, foot stools to get into bed, and even a lift for the sheet/blanket to keep them off your feet.

Now onto the bathroom. The shower can be equipped with multiple grab bars for safety, shower chairs and stools, handheld shower sprayers with extended hoses, and transfer benches that make it safer to get into the shower.

Your toilet can be upgraded to have a raised toilet seat that has handles and locks onto the toilet (there are ones that are cushioned, too), and commodes that can go from bathroom to bedside in an instant. Now these are just to name a few of the various accommodating items to make your bathroom easier to navigate thru.

Let's get dressed now with some dressing aids. This category of items run from a button/zipper puller, sock/stocking aid, dressing stick, long handled shoehorn, elastic shoelaces, leg lifter, and reachers of varying lengths, to just skim the surface of items available.

When eating and taking medications, there are some useful aids. There are utensils that are weighted and have grips and even ones that bend!

There are cups designed for easy drinking and plate guards that keep food on your plate.

There is such a variety of pill reminders that I can't possibly name them but we would be very happy to show you.

Now for your recreation, there are walkers of all sorts, with and without seats, transport chairs that fold and go, and not to mention cup holders, wallets, and baskets for your walker or wheelchair.

Seat lifts, swivel seats and car straps that help you out of your car and get you to your destination are very useful. Some items that you may not think are out there but are readily available are playing cards with large print, player card holders, exercise-clay, and finger exercisers. Also, there are jar openers, lamp switch attachments, and key turners that are helping hands.

While this article couldn't cover everything available, I hope it has opened your mind to explore new things that can assist you in your daily life.

Please feel free to stop in with any questions about any of the products mentioned or ask if something else may be available to assist you. Make Be Jay Drugs your Aid to Daily Living!

Filling You In

By Jeffrey E. Mason, D.M.D.

Nutrition: What does your mouth say about your overall health?

Living in a fast-paced society where fast food seems to dominate the food chain can mean a great deal for oral health - and poor food choices can even have a negative effect on teeth. In fact, in order for the body's tissues to resist infection and for teeth to remain healthy, minerals and nutrients are essential in a person's diet.

The presence of too much or too little of any nutrient can have harmful effects, particularly on the mouth and teeth, and may contribute to oral diseases and infection, according to an article in the March 2007 issue of AGO Impact, the newsmagazine of the Academy of General Dentistry (AGO).

Poor nutrition affects the entire immune system, increasing susceptibility to many common disorders. People with lowered immune systems have been shown to be at higher risk for periodontal disease.

Additionally, research shows a link between oral health and systemic conditions, such as diabetes and cardiovascular disease.

"Deficiencies in vitamins can cause poor tissue connectivity which can allow for tissue breakdown and subsequent invasion by bacteria," says AGO President-Elect Paula Jones, DDS, FAGD and AGO spokesperson. "With the additional factor of poor oral health care, the situation can be exacerbated and exhibit as a more severe case of periodontal disease since nutritional deficiencies can compromise the immune system."

Patients can improve their oral health and reduce the risk of periodontal disease by eating a balanced diet of a variety of foods from the five food groups--grain, fruit, vegetables, milk and meat.

In addition, Dr. Jones explains, "A diet rich in dark, leafy green vegetables and fresh fruits helps the body to have adequate C and B vitamins," Dr. Jones explains. "Limited amounts of sunshine help the body to produce Vitamin D, which is necessary for the absorption of calcium, which helps to build strong bones and teeth."

Eating a variety of foods as part of a well-balanced diet may not only improve dental health, but increasing fiber and vitamin intake may reduce the risk of other diseases.

What foods may be bad for your mouth?

- Carbohydrates: Chips, bread, pasta, or crackers can be as harmful to the teeth as candy.

- Sticky, chewy foods: Raisins, granola bars, jelly beans, caramel, honey and syrup stick to teeth and make it difficult to wash the sugar away.

- Sugary snacks: Cookies, cakes or other desserts contain a high amount of sugar, which can cause tooth decay.

- Gum and candy: When chewing gum and eating candy, the sugar coats teeth, which can lead to cavities.

- Carbonated soft drinks: Regular and diet sodas contain phosphorous and carbonation, which wears away the enamel on teeth.

- Fruit or vegetable juices: These beverages tend to be high in sugar, which can damage tooth enamel and lead to decay.

Buying versus Renting, Re-visited

I know we've covered this topic before, but a piece I read recently in the Wall Street Journal makes this debate, I think, more timely than ever.

The article emphasizes that a perfect combination – excellent home affordability, extremely low mortgage rates and excess inventory – has made this a great time to buy a home. It adds, however, that these conditions will not stay this good for buyers for very much longer.

According to industry analysts in the WSJ story, a few key factors that impact housing are expected to improve in the near future. These will work towards correcting the current imbalance in the real estate market, putting buyers and sellers on a more equal footing.

Firstly – and we covered this subject here a couple of months ago – the number of new households per year has been on the rise. From a high of nearly 2 million new renters or owners in 2005, it fell to barely 575,000 in 2008.

According to reports from Moody's Analytics, this figure should average 1.2 million (with a higher percentage in our NYC metro area) before too long. More people wanting homes will put a significant dent in the current supply of properties in the following 18 to 24 months, Moody's wrote.

Secondly: home affordability. This refers, of course, to the percentage of household income needed to cover the price of a typical home purchase. The current ratio is 20.9% lower than the average for the past 15 years, which means median home price costs Americans a fifth less of gross income.

In our Hasbrouck Heights/Wood-Ridge area, it is often actually cheaper to buy a home than rent. This great affordability takes into account low home prices as well as historically low mortgage interest rates (the average, reported by Freddie Mac this month, is 4.55%). Rates haven't been this low in half a century!

Of course, credit continues to be an issue for many would-be buyers. If you don't have a stellar credit score, it's difficult to get loan approval.

Bigger down payment requirements have also prevented a number of home purchasers from getting financing.

Economic experts, quoted in the article, say lending standards will be tough for at least another 6 months but should get better in the coming year or so, allowing many buyers back into the housing market.

So, in this perfect storm of housing opportunity, why rent if you're able to buy? Let's review the fundamentals. What are the main, basic reasons people buy a home....

• It's a good investment.

Investors say overwhelmingly that real estate can typically be a safer and better investment than stocks and bonds!

• Tax savings. Mortgage interest and property taxes are tax-deductible, making tax savings one of the biggest benefits of homeownership. This means that you could possibly pay less tax or you get a bigger tax return.

• Improvements add value.

Unlike rental improvements, when you paint, make additions, or improvements to your home it increases in value.

• Buying builds equity. Buying a home is good use of your money. As you make payments over time, the equity increases. When renting, you get no return for your money. Once the money is spent, it's gone.

• Capital appreciation. Unlike buying a car or renting, homes – when taken care of – usually appreciate in value.

• More space. Renters typically live in smaller spaces; home buyers have more square footage for their money.

And on and on.... For now, the dream of home ownership is more affordable than it's been in years, making 2011 a great time to buy. But it won't last forever. The long-term outlook foresees a shift from the current buyer's market to a more balanced one in the not so distant future.

HHFD Trains for House Fire

On June 23, 2011, at about 7 p.m., the Hasbrouck Heights Fire Department held a training exercise in a building at the DPW complex simulating a house fire with trapped victims. The event began with Training Officer Robert Knobloch providing an overview of the drill, and review of safety procedures. Firefighters used full turn-out gear, to include S.C.B.A.

air packs. A machine simulated heavy smoke conditions and a "dummy" created with old fire hose, was the victim. Several evolutions of the same theme were practiced: The first team did a search and rescue while the second team followed behind with a line stretched to knock out the simulated fire. Photos and story by Matthew Albanese. ###

PSE&G to Install Solar Energy Units

In June, PSE&G contractors began installing pole-attached solar units in Lodi, and, in August, will begin in Hasbrouck Heights and Teterboro. When the project is complete in late 2012, the pole-attached solar units will provide 40 megawatts of solar electricity -- enough to power about 6,500 average size New Jersey homes annually. They are placed on utility poles with a clear exposure to the southern sky, access to the proper voltage electric wires and where installation does not interfere with existing equipment. The panels are approximately 2 1/2 feet high by 5 feet wide and installed about 15 feet off the ground. These solar units connect directly into the PSE&G electric grid. The pole-attached solar units help New Jersey reach its renewable energy portfolio requirement that was set in the State's Energy Master Plan. It takes about 170 acres of land to place 40 megawatts worth of traditional solar farms. Utilizing these utility poles takes up zero land space. PSE&G estimates this installation will reduce the amount of CO2 in the air by 31 metric tons per year, nitrous oxide by 58 metric tons per year, sulfur oxide by 135 metric tons per year -- the same as removing about 3,800 cars from the road for one year. ###

PA Gives $10,000 Grant to HHFD

On Monday, June 27, 2011, New Jersey Lt. Governor Kim Guadagno presented a $10,000 Port Authority grant to benefit Hasbrouck Heights emergency services during a ceremony at Fire Headquarters on Hamilton Avenue.

Guadagno spoke of the courage shown by first responders and the need to keep these vital services well funded.

Bill Baroni, former NJ State Senator and the Deputy

Executive Director of the Port Authority, praised Hasbrouck Heights' valiant efforts to keep tragedy from occurring at Teterboro Airport.

Baroni said, "Time and time again, Hasbrouck Heights has assisted the Port Authority in emergency calls. It has no greater partner."

He also noted that the grant was timely, coming as it did when the Port Authority is commemorating its 90th anniversary.

The money comes from a $135,000 fund set up by the Port Authority of New York and New Jersey to be awarded to 13 fire departments and other first responders in northern New Jersey.

Grant rules stipulate that municipalities must use the money to buy public safety equipment or to upgrade facilities. Hasbrouck Heights, which has 58 volunteer firefighters, plans to use the grant to buy fire fighting equipment.

Departments receiving money have agreed to assist the Port Authority when emergencies arise. Hasbrouck Heights fire, rescue and EMS routinely respond to emergencies at Teterboro Airport.

Observing the ceremony were members of the HHPD Jr. Police Academy. Following the presentation, Lt. Guadagno and Bill Baroni spoke with them. ###

About noon on July 15, 2011, the Lodi Fire Department responded to a roof fire on Garibaldi Avenue, drawing a second alarm. Two 1 3/4" attack lines were used - one on the roof and one entering the building. The incident is under investigation. No injuries were reported. Photo by Rob Knobloch. ###
