No Valentines for those who tear us apart with mendacious corruption, greedy politics, dysfunctional divisiveness, calculated arrogance, corrosive propaganda -- magnified by big media. Gazette Valentines go out to the thousands of everyday folks actively binding us together. People who organize food and coat drives, clean ups, town-building events. Organizations such as: Lions Clubs, Women's Clubs, Knights, Elks, Little Leagues, Scouts. Energetic volunteers like: Friends of the Library, Churches, Veterans, seniors, PTAs, committed firefighters and EMTs. Citizens with good manners that practice random acts of kindness, road courtesy, help neighbors and quietly build our community.

Tucci Family Recognized for Lodi Swimming Pool

On Sunday, December 19, 2021, Mayor Scott Luna presented Louis C. Tucci with a plaque in honor of the family owned Lodi Pool, which was the mecca of community gatherings in the early 1930s.

Louis was five years old at the time. The main entrance was on Hamilton Avenue and stretched up to Keaslet Avenue. The pool offered a sandy beach, refreshment stands, amusement rides and locker rooms.

On Sundays, the Lodi Pool featured bi-plane rides. The plane would take off and land on a rock littered field along Linden Street. Story by Lodi Historian Art Maglionico. Photos by Marc Schrieke. ###

BCA Culinary Candy Land Creation

This year, ACAHA Seniors at BCA brought Candy Land to Hackensack, NJ! After a pause in the annual tradition due to COVID-19, they were excited to create yet another wonderland.

With gingerbread walls, sugary snow, and an abundance of team effort, they completed the display, spreading holiday cheer. The students took on positions of project manager, chief engineer, architect, creative director, art directors, executive chef, construction team, and publicists. Each student filled one of these roles and worked tirelessly to complete the project.

With a communal effort, much planning, and communication, they were able to finish the project in two weeks!

In their Candy Land, the students created Plumpy (the plum tree), Gumdrop Mountain, Lollipop Woods, Peppermint Forest, Peanut Acres, Snowflake Lake, and Chocolate Swamp.

The multi-colored frosted gingerbread game path leads to the elaborate Candy Castle, with a special appearance of Santa sitting at the entrance.

All the elaborate aspects of this candy world were edible! The display stood in the lobby of the Bergen County Academies, bringing a welcoming holiday touch to all the students! Provided by John Branda. ###

About Mardi Gras/Shrove Tuesday

This year, Shrove Tuesday and Mardi Gras is celebrated on Tuesday, March 1, 2022. Shrove Tuesday is the last day before Lent, a period for fasting. Also known as Pancake Day, Shrove Tuesday was the last opportunity to use up eggs and fats before embarking on the Lenten fast and pancakes are the perfect way of using up these ingredients.
It is also known as Fat Tuesday, or Mardi Gras, and features large festivals and celebrations across the United States. The Mardi Gras parade in New Orleans, Louisiana, is typical of the masquerades and dancing in the streets that take place in other parts of the United States before the long Lenten fast. Ash Wednesday is Wednesday, March 2, 2022. ###

Full Snow Moon

The February full moon will appear on Wednesday, February 16, 2022, at 11:56. It is called the "Full Snow Moon."
The heaviest snow usually falls during February, according to the Farmer's Almanac. Some tribes also referred to this Moon as the "Full Hunger Moon," since harsh weather conditions made hunting difficult.
The Native American Indians of the northern and eastern United States kept track of the seasons by giving a name to each recurring full moon. European settlers followed the custom. ###

Let's Go Traveling!

By Rick Ardis

Protecting Your Vacation

Statistics have shown that many people have not purchased travel protection plans when booking their vacation. In 2019, approximately two-thirds of vacationers had not even considered the purchase of coverage to protect their investment. The Automobile Association of America (AAA) reports an increase of over 30% in travel insurance sales as the pandemic progresses. There are misconceptions that have caused the traveling public to be hesitant to add travel insurance to their agenda. The most common misunderstanding about this insurance is what is covered in the offered plans. Another is thinking they are already covered by their own health insurance, homeowner's policy, or credit card. While each of these three may cover some risks, travel insurance policies are comprehensive plans that offer broad coverage. People often ask when to purchase a plan. Travel insurance must be purchased before a claim becomes necessary. It is recommended that coverage be added as soon as you plan your vacation. Enhanced inclusions are generally offered when purchasing coverage immediately. Depending on the underwriter, this may be within 7, 14, or 21 days of confirming your trip. While traveling within the United States, most health insurance plans will provide medical coverage. Depending on the plan, the traveler may be out of network and be assessed extremely high co-pay charges. Medicare and most private plans will not cover travelers during international trips. The vacationing American may even be denied admittance to a hospital until payment is guaranteed. Homeowner's or renter's insurance may provide payments for lost or stolen luggage. Credit card programs may cover a variety of issues, most notably rental car protection. You may only be protected when prepaying the trip partially or fully with the card. Programs vary by financial institution and also between branded cards from the same bank. Travel insurance policies are issued by a variety of companies who specialize in the field. Each of the companies may offer multiple plans at a range price points with different coverage amounts. Coverages may vary from state to state. There are inclusions available to New Jersey residents that are not available to residents of New York which is one of several states slowest to adopt new enhancements. There are two parts to a comprehensive policy. The first is a pre-departure protection coverage in the event a trip needs to be cancelled prior to its start. The most common reason to file a claim is the sickness or injury to the traveler. Additionally, another need to cancel may arise from a home emergency such as fire or flood. (After hurricanes Irene and Sandy, Ardis Travel had clients who were reimbursed when unable to travel due storm damage.) Death of a close relative, jury duty, subpoena, loss of job, and the need to work may be covered by the trip cancellation portion of the policy. The post-departure portion of a travel insurance policy is broader. Trip interruption is like trip cancellation but is for protection should you need to cut your vacation short and return home early. This portion refunds the unused remaining components of your journey and additional expenses. Two important parts of the travel insurance policy are Travel Medical Expenses and Emergency Medical Transportation. As mentioned before, a traveler may not have any medical coverage when leaving the United States. The first covers medical bills associated with treatment and/or hospitalization. The second can be the most expensive issue that arises with an emergency while traveling. Every year there are many helicopter evacuations from cruise ships. Also, vacationers may fall ill or be injured on islands or in remote areas requiring an airlift to a hospital. These emergency evacuations can cost tens of thousands of dollars. Other post departure coverages include missed connecting flights, missing or delayed baggage, lost or stolen belongings, strikes by common carriers, and emergency assistance. Several factors may affect the premium paid for travel insurance policies. These include, cost of the trip, age of the traveler, length of the vacation, and coverage level. Additionally, there are additional options to choose. For an extra cost, some companies offer "Cancel for any reason" coverage, allowing for situations not specified in the policies. This coverage will increase the policy premium while providing refunds of 50% to 75% of the trip cost. Other add-ons may increase higher maximum levels of coverage for included components such as medical, baggage, and personal effects. Recent additions include family pets and political uprising evacuations. There are also enhancements for adventure or sports travel. Developments during the pandemic have had effects on the travel insurance industry. Covid is now a covered reason for cancellation with some companies. Previously, pandemics had been specifically excluded. Some countries now require proof of travel or medical insurance to enter. Last summer, when traveling to Croatia, I was required to show my notice of coverage to Austrian Airlines when checking-in at Newark Airport. While travelers may find the purchase of an insurance policy expensive, the protection provided could save money. Three years ago, while in Greece, I was scheduled to take a ferry from Athens to Mykonos. To reach my next destination, I had to book a last-minute flight for $490. This became necessary due to a ferry workers' strike leaving flying as my only option. The airline ticket was significantly more than my pre-paid $75 ferry ticket. My travel insurance policy refunded the amount of the airline ticket in full. The purchase of a travel insurance policy can provide peace of mind and avoid financial hardship. When traveling, check your existing coverage and compare travel insurance offerings for a worry-free vacation. Historically Speaking

By James J. Halloran

Dealing With Time

After I was drafted, in 1965, Uncle Sam felt that any military talents I may have had, were best utilized at Fort Knox. No, I did not see any gold. Fort Knox is located in Hardin County, Kentucky. Kentucky is divided into two time zones. About 60% of the state is located in the Eastern Standard Time Zone and the remaining part of the state is in the Central Standard Time Zone. Hardin County is located just inside the Eastern Time Zone. In 1966, Kentucky did not observe Daylight Savings Time (DST). Fort Knox is under the authority of US 1st Army. 1st Army is headquartered at Fort Meade, Maryland. The State of Maryland did observe Daylight Savings Time, as did Fort Meade. Therefore, 1st Army ordered all installations in their command, to adopt Daylight Savings Time. This included Fort Knox. We would leave the Fort on Saturday night at 7 p.m. and an hour later arrive in Louisville at 7 p.m. This would appear to have been an issue with the many civilians that worked at the Fort. If they lived north, south or east of Fort Knox, they would lose an hour going to work, but regain it going home. Anyone living west of Hardin County would lose two hours going to work. Then they would pick up the two hours going home during the period of Daylight Savings Time. Another adjustment I had to deal with was the fact that the US Military uses a 24-hour clock. Any time after noon, you would have to add 12 hours to the time. 3 p.m. became 1500 hours. Things got really interesting on the job. Part of my duties were to review outgoing messages that would be sent via teletype to various locations both in and out of the United States. I had to put the date and time on these messages. What time did I mark on these messages? Did I use Eastern Standard Time or Daylight Savings Time? The answer was none of the above. I had to mark them in Zulu Time. Zulu Time had nothing to do with Africa. Zulu is the letter Z in the phonetic alphabet. Because of the global operations of the US Military, a reference point in time is needed. They chose to use Greenwich Mean Time (See The Gazette Newspaper, January, 2022). Rather than mark the time as Greenwich Mean Time (GMT), the military simply used the letter Z. This became Zulu Time. There was a note taped to my desk that read "Zulu Time – Daylight Savings Time +4, Eastern Standard Time +5." This was the difference, in hours, that I had to add to the outgoing message. Thus, 1030 hours (10:30 a.m. DST) became 1430 Z (Zulu) (2:30 p.m. GMT). In 1967, I was back in New Jersey, readjusting to civilian time. ###

Artful Thinking

By Artie Maglionico • Lodi Historian

Artful February 2022

If you are searching for programs that are available to the community of Lodi, look no further than Police Officer Lieutenant Detective, Anthony Mobilio Jr.

Being among Chief Donald Scorzetti's finest, which includes the entire police force, Lieutenant Mobilio has a list of events for all seasons, ages, and community affiliations.

These programs include Junior Police Academy for 7th Grade students, Law Enforcement Against Drugs (LEAD) for 5th Graders, coat drives for Vietnam Veterans and the less fortunate, Cops & Their Pets, Coffee with a Cop, Ice Cream Under the Stars, PBA toy drives, book readings, birthday drive-by's during the height of the pandemic, the Veterans Memorial Service, as well as interviews and performances from local talent and holiday videos. Now did I hear someone say that there's not much going on in Lodi? I didn't think so.

Lt. Mobilio was born and raised in the Borough of Lodi. He attended Washington School and is a 1983 graduate of Lodi High School.

His parents, Anthony and Mildred, also born and raised in Lodi, were the owners of Phil's Auto Parts on Main Street. "My parents met at a Church dance in Wallington," said Mobilio. "They were married in 1948." Officer Mobilio's childhood pals included John Denobile, Gary Kashack, Mike Caniano and Charles Mees.

In 1988, Officer Mobilio married his high school sweetheart, Faye Duardo. The couple has one son, Anthony, who kept law enforcement in the family by becoming a NJ State Trooper.

At the age of 32, after working at the family business since he was 15, Anthony Mobilio decided to join the ranks of the Lodi Police Department. "I was inspired by Officer Al Lavelle" said Mobilio "He, along with Officers Joe Petone, Joe Quatrone, John Scimeca and Chief Donald Scorzetti, was my biggest influence."

Lt. Mobilio officially joined the force in 1999 as a patrolman. In 2012, after much hard work and dedication, as well as a concern for the welfare of his community, he was promoted to the rank of Lieutenant on the detective bureau.

"I became a Community Relations Officer," said Mobilio, "All of the programs that we offer would not materialize without the help and generosity of my fellow police officers."

After 23 years as a member of the Lodi Police Force, Lieutenant Anthony Mobilio Jr. still comes to work with a brisk step and a friendly smile.

"I love my community and the Esprit de corps of the entire Department." Says Lt. Mobilio, "I wouldn't trade it for the world."

Valentine's Day

Hey folks, I almost forgot. We are in the month of February and that means Valentine's Day is fast approaching and if you are among those who are reading this on the 15th, well sorry about that. You missed it! Better luck next year.

I'm going to celebrate by jotting down a Valentine's Day poem I wrote some years back. Maybe some of you in Artful Thinking land can relate to it.

I was an extremely shy fellow and when a pretty girl would cast an admiring glance my way I'd shrivel up like a 2 week old cucumber.

The poem describes, in four stanzas, my entire childhood and my shyness really surfaced big time come Valentine's Day, especially when it revolved around the girl with red hair.

Please Be My Valentine

By Artie Maglionico

I saw you pass by
But I'm rather shy
And didn't know what to do.

I know what to say
But the words melt away
Each time I get close to you.

I'd write you a letter
But it isn't much better
Can't think of a single line.

So I might as well say it
There's no time to delay it.
Please be my Valentine.

Wasn't Valentine's Day a stressful event folks? I, for one, could never trust Cupid since any arrow pointed in my direction either fell short or sailed over my head and landed on the kid behind me.

More times than not the kid would be walking the girl of my dreams home from school hand in hand carrying her books. It was that kid from Westervelt Place, my rival Johnny Rannou.

Oh he was a smooth operator with his freshly ironed shirt, hair parted and slicked back with Wild Root Cream Oil. All of that on top of a pair of polished Buster Browns.

Plus he was taller than me. Even if I stood on my toes he still had me by a good inch. That's why Cupid's arrow always missed me and hit Rannou, that lucky so and so.

As for the girl with red hair...well that was one of the rare times Cupid's arrow hit a bullseye. Rannou was out sick with the mumps that day, poor fellow.

Happy Valentine's Day everyone!

Filling You In

By Jeffrey E. Mason, DMD, FAGD.

Why is Oral Health Important for Men?

Men are less likely than women to take care of their physical health and, according to surveys and studies, their oral health is equally ignored.

Good oral health recently has been linked with longevity. Yet, one of the most common factors associated with infrequent dental checkups is just being male. Men are less likely than women to seek preventive dental care and often neglect their oral health for years, visiting a dentist only when a problem arises.

When it comes to oral health, statistics show that the average man brushes his teeth 1.9 times a day and will lose 5.4 teeth by age 72. If he smokes, he can plan on losing 12 teeth by age 72. Men are also more likely to develop oral and throat cancer and periodontal (gum) disease.

Why is periodontal disease a problem?

Periodontal disease is a result of plaque, which hardens into a rough, porous substance called tartar.

The acids produced and released by bacteria found in tartar irritate gums. These acids cause the breakdown of fibers that anchor the gums tightly to the teeth, creating periodontal pockets that fill with even more bacteria.

Researchers have found a connection between gum disease and cardiovascular disease, which can place people at risk for heart attacks and strokes. See your dentist if you have any of these symptoms:

- Bleeding gums during brushing. Red, swollen or tender gums. Persistent bad breath. Loose or separating teeth.

Do you take medications?

Since men are more likely to suffer from heart attacks, they also are more likely to be on medications that can cause dry mouth. If you take medication for the heart or blood pressure, or if you take antidepressants, your salivary flow could be inhibited, increasing the risk for cavities. Saliva helps to reduce the cavity-causing bacteria found in your mouth.

Do you use tobacco?

If you smoke or chew, you have a greater risk for gum disease and oral cancer. Men are affected twice as often as women, and 95 percent of oral cancers occur in those over 40 years of age.

The most frequent oral cancer sites are the tongue, the floor of the mouth, soft palate tissues in back of the tongue, lips and gums.

If not diagnosed and treated in its early stages, oral cancer can spread, leading to chronic pain, loss of function, irreparable facial and oral disfigurement following surgery and even death.

More than 8,000 people die each year from oral and pharyngeal diseases.

If you use tobacco, it is important to see a dentist frequently for cleanings and to ensure your mouth remains healthy. Your general dentist can perform a thorough screening for oral cancer.

Do you play sports?

If you participate in sports, you have a greater potential for trauma to your mouth and teeth.

If you play contact sports, such as football, soccer, basketball and even baseball, it is important to use a mouthguard, which is a flexible appliance made of plastic that protects teeth from trauma.

If you ride bicycles or motorcycles, wear a helmet.

Taking care of your teeth.

To take better care of your oral health, it is important to floss daily, brush your teeth with fluoride toothpaste twice daily and visit your dentist at least twice a year for cleanings.

Here are some tips to better dental health:

- Use a soft-bristled toothbrush to reach every surface of each tooth. If the bristles on your toothbrush are bent or frayed, buy a new one.
- Replace your toothbrush every three months or after you've been sick.
- Choose a toothpaste with fluoride. This can reduce tooth decay by as much as 40 percent.
- Brush properly. To clean the outside surfaces of your teeth, position the brush at a 45-degree angle where your gums and teeth meet. Gently move the brush in a circular motion using short, gentle strokes.

To clean the inside surfaces of the upper and lower front teeth, hold the brush vertically. Make several gentle strokes over each tooth and its surrounding gum tissue. Spend at least three minutes brushing.

- Floss properly. Gently insert the floss between teeth using a back-and-forth motion. Do not force the floss or snap it into place. Curve the floss into a C-shape against one tooth and then the other.

Paying attention to the health of your mouth can contribute to your overall health and well being.

Football Party Tips Super Bowl LVI February 13

No matter which teams are playing, you should get the gang together, stock your fridge with all the food and drink that matter, and set up the television just right in order to appreciate America's most watched sports event.

- Without proper decorations, your Bowl bash will be incomplete. Put up banners of the competing teams on your wall or hang streamers bearing the team colors. Get Super Bowl paper plates, tablecloths and other decorative things.

- Next to the excitement of the game itself, your party will be most remembered for the food provided. Your decorations may be great, but if the snacks and main dishes aren't hits, no one will be pleased.

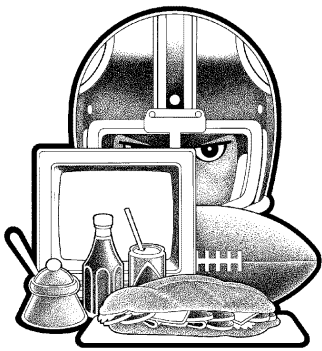

The main meal should be tasty, simple and filling.

- Make it easy and cater your party. Check out the menus at Hasbrouck Heights Pizzeria, Luigi Meats (Wood-Ridge) and Master Pizza (Carlstadt - See ad on page 5). Order in advance since Super Bowl Sunday is one of the busiest nights for delivery-based restaurants.

- Set up the food in an assembly line so that everyone can customize their own dinner. Stick to a buffet set-up in order to ease serving and eating. That way, everyone can enjoy the food while watching the game, and most importantly, you can too.

- If you want to impress, have a Super Bowl cake.

- To make clean up easier, use plastic cups, plates, utensils and napkins.

- Keep the beer in a cooler close by so you don't have to run to the fridge. Have plenty of soft drinks and water on hand for the designated drivers. Avoid offering hard liquor on Super Bowl Sunday. Football is a sport that begs for beer.

- Some people like to add to the entertainment by organizing betting pools. Ideally, these games are done in a way that even the guests who don't know a thing about football can join in.

For instance, you can bet on who will score the next touchdown, what the score at the end of each quarter will be or even who'll win the coin toss. Make charts or grids so that the wagers are clear and keep the pot low so that no one blows their wallet.

- If it's a real manly, poker-night type night, pass cigars around. Make sure there are enough chairs for everyone to sit on. Provide a side room for those who came for the food and atmosphere, and not the actual game.

- Think ahead and place garbage cans around your place so that wherever your guests are, they can find a place for their trash. ###

Super Bowl LVI will be the 56th Super Bowl and the 52nd modern-era National Football League (NFL) championship.

The game is scheduled to be played on February 13, 2022, at SoFi Stadium in Inglewood, California. The game will be televised nationally by NBC.

The halftime show will be headlined by Dr. Dre, Snoop Dogg, Eminem, Mary J. Blige, and Kendrick Lamar.

Under the NFL's current television contracts, Super Bowl LVI was to have been broadcast by CBS, as part of the annual cycle among the three main broadcast television partners of the NFL.

For the first time, the Super Bowl is scheduled on a date that falls within the date range of an ongoing Olympics event, the 2022 Winter Olympics in Beijing.

Typically in the past major television events have been rescheduled during Olympic years to avoid clashing with the games. There is also an unspoken gentleman's agreement between the NFL's broadcasters to not air competing original programming against the Super Bowl.

On March 13, 2019, CBS announced that it had agreed to trade Super Bowl LVI with NBC in exchange for Super Bowl LV, thus both Super Bowl LVI and the 2022 Winter Olympics will be televised by NBC.

As with Super Bowl LII, which fell prior to the 2018 Winter Olympics, NBC will be able to maximize its advertising revenue by encouraging sponsors to buy time for both events; the network estimated it would take in a combined $1.4 billion from advertising sales for the two events in 2018.

“Love-ly” Valentines

Just like people, flowers come in hundreds of shapes and sizes.

When it comes to Valentine’s Day gifts, carefully selecting the flower varieties and colors you send will result in a thoughtful, customized gift your Sweetheart will treasure.

According to Heights Flower Shoppe, the first step is to consider your Sweetheart’s preferences. What colors does he or she like?

A dozen red roses remains the classic Valentine’s Day favorite. However, many women report that they adore roses in other colors just as much. There are hundreds of colors to choose from. The choices are endless and it’s easier than ever to select a rose that is as unique as your Sweetheart.

Your florist can create arrangements that revolve around your Sweetheart’s favorite hobby, sport or pastime.

Add a burst of spring to your Valentine’s winter with floral varieties such as lilies, alstroemeria, iris, tulips, daffodils, hyacinths, tuberose or freesias.

A spring arrangement in a casual basket or clear glass vase makes a perfect accent for a romantic dinner.

With all of the sensational flowers available to choose from, even just one or two elegant blossoms can make a big impression. Also, green and blooming plants make romantic Valentine’s Day gifts.

Ask yourself what message you want to convey. Consult with your florist, who can explain the assortment of possibilities available.

Bill O’Shea’s Florist reminds you that to get the best selection and ensure prompt delivery, call the week before Valentine’s Day.

When you call, have the necessary information handy: the recipient’s name, address, phone number, what you want to send and how you want to be billed.

Are you having trouble putting your feelings into words? Secret Garden NJ, in Wallington, suggests these creative messages for your floral enclosure cards:

- (For flowers delivered on February 13th): Couldn’t wait another day to say I Love You!

- (For flowers delivered before February 13th): I love you so much I couldn’t wait for Valentine’s Day!

- (For flowers delivered February 14th): Today’s a very special day for sending all my love your way!

- With you, it’s Valentine’s Day 365 days a year.

Selecting The Right Valentine Gift

Finding the right Valentine’s Day gift is probably the most difficult shopping experience in any man’s life.

A Valentine’s Day gift is instrumental in revitalizing the bond between a duo.

The gift evokes the memories of the moments of love and affection which both have experienced. And it reminds the couple of the unconditional love which exists between them.

This year, show your Sweetheart how much she means to you by giving her a gift from the heart.

Remember that the Valentine’s theme is all about love, romance and appreciation.

The nature of the gift can reflect how much you care. The meaning of your gift also varies according to the seriousness and the type of relationship you’re in.

If you’ve gone out with her a few times, the level of commitment is low, and you’re simply having a lot of fun. What do you buy her?

Buying her a Valentine card, flowers or candy is acceptable for this early stage in a relationship.

On the other hand, if the relationship is strong and its future seems bright, opt for a more original present.

Think about what she appreciates the most and what she has mentioned over the past few weeks, or get her something that relates to her hobbies and interests. The key is to show that you put some thought into the gift. ###

Valentine’s Day Romantic Libation

If there was ever a holiday made for drinking wine, it’s Valentine’s Day! Champagne is the classic choice, but the richness and depth of flavor in red wines captures the soul and spirit of true romance. What kind of couple are you and your honey? Here are some recommendations based on your romance style!

For the Romantics: Amarone

Amarone is an Italian wine made in the Veneto region of Italy from Corvina and Rondinella grapes. What makes a beautiful Amarone so rich, luscious, and powerful is that after harvest, the grapes are dried all winter, which concentrates their sugars and flavors. Amarone is vinified dry, this is not a dessert wine, but there’s no mistaking the depth of flavor, velvety texture, and juicy dark fruit flavors that are purely luxurious. Look for Amarone that has a little age on it, and open it about an hour before pouring. The best ones can be expensive, but your valentine is worth a splurge!

For the Classic Couple: Bordeaux

What red wine is more classic than Bordeaux? These wines are various blends of the five "Bordeaux varietals": Cabernet Sauvignon, Cabernet Franc, Merlot, Petite Verdot and Malbec. Bordeaux is so classic that it’s become a brand name driven by notoriously high prices from the top chateaux, but there are still affordable discoveries to be made. Look out for the Merlot-based wines from Fronsac, Cotes de Blaye, and Cotes de Castillon.

For the Desirous Duo: Look to Spain

Turn it up with a sexy, spicy red! There’s just something about all Flamenco guitars and bullfighting that makes Spain a very sultry destination, and its wines are no exception to the rule. Look for wines made from grapes like Tempranillo, Garnacha, and Mencia. Ole!

For the Adventurous Couple: Lambrusco

Lambrusco is the best of both worlds, all the fun and festivity of a sparkling wine with the lively dark fruits of a nice red. Plus, it’s inexpensive, so stock up! Served chilled, it’s fabulous with a great cheese board and really amazing with all things chocolate!

Whichever one you pick simply remember to enjoy the time you spend together and enjoy the company and, of course, the wine.

Happy Valentine’s Day from the Wine Guys. President Angel Martinez and Vice President Philip Miuccio, American Wine Society. ###

Groundhog Day February 2

According to folklore, if it is cloudy when a groundhog emerges from its burrow on this day, then spring will come early; if it is sunny, the groundhog will supposedly see its shadow and retreat back into its burrow, and the winter weather will continue for six more weeks.

Punxsutawney held its first Groundhog Day in the United States in the 1800s. The first official trek to Gobbler's Knob near Punxsutawney, Pennsylvania, was made on February 2, 1887.

Movies, advertisements, cartoons and other media have portrayed the legendary role of the groundhog in popular culture.

The term "Groundhog Day" is a phrase that is sometimes used to express if the same events or actions occur repetitively for a period of time.

Groundhog Day, already a widely recognized and popular tradition, received widespread attention as a result of the 1993 film "Groundhog Day." ###

Chore Program Helps Seniors

Since 1977, the Chore Volunteer Handyman Service of the Volunteer Center of Bergen County has been helping elderly and/or disabled people, by performing minor household repairs that clients cannot perform themselves.

The Chore Service assists in improving the quality of life of older people who are living independently.

Chore's services include installing grab bars and interior railings, smoke and carbon monoxide detectors; repairing leaky faucets or toilets, replacing broken door locks, installing weather-stripping, changing screens and storms, replacing light bulbs, replacing broken lamps and switches, installing simple electrical fixtures or replacing existing electric outlets and switches.

There are some jobs that are beyond Chore's capacity. Chore cannot service emergencies, and does not do outdoor work, painting, work requiring high ladders, tiling, door or window replacements, heavy lifting, new wiring or appliance repairs, cosmetic repairs or interior decorating.

Chore serves Bergen County residents who are at least age sixty (60) or who are permanently disabled of any age. Chore operates three vans which are staffed by 45 volunteers. Crews, comprised of a driver and two to three volunteers, are on the road every business day year round.

Each year, Chore volunteers make approximately 2,000 home visits, complete over 5,000 repairs, and log in over 10,000 hours of service.

Chore volunteers are also needed. A Chore Handyperson volunteer goes on service calls one day a week from 9 a.m. to 2 p.m. Volunteers enjoy being part of a crew of one or two other volunteers plus a driver. Each crew is assigned 4 to 5 service calls each weekday.

Back-up volunteer handy-men and women are also welcome.

Prospective volunteers should be able to perform minor household repairs such as those that able-bodied homeowners must do. Ideally, volunteers will be available on a regular basis so Chore can schedule a regular day with the same crew.

Chore provides service without charge; the only cost to the client is for parts necessary to complete the repair. To schedule a repair, or become a Chore Service volunteer, call 201-489-7790. For info: <http://bergenvolunteers.org/> ###

Real Estate Insight

By Mary Ellen Courtney

Thoughts on Valentine's Day

I was at a meeting the other day for Terrie O'Connor Realtors office managers and was intrigued by a coffee mug one of my colleagues was drinking from.

On it was inscribed "A Realtor is not a salesperson. They are a matchmaker. They introduce people to homes until they fall in love with one. Then... they're a wedding planner!"

I thought to myself, how aptly put and how true! Of course, the message resonates more this month of Valentine's Day – after all, in addition, perhaps, to snow and bitter cold temperatures, "Love is in the air." But, even looked at objectively, the elements of matchmaking and long-term commitment planning are essentially the realtor's stock in trade - practiced all year 'round! And, quite honestly, it's a beautiful thing.

Indeed, getting to help people find the home of their dreams is one of the most rewarding things about being a real estate agent. It's not easy.

First you have to really get to know the person or persons you're dealing with and then you have to try to help determine what they want. Because, guess what? Oftentimes they themselves don't really know. So it becomes a matter of guiding them with a series of questions to narrow down their prospects; questions about budget, location, types of mortgages, styles of architecture and basic wants.

Once the wants and needs are established then the introductions to different houses can begin.

And, as with all matters of the heart, sometimes love happens at first sight but other times it can take a few tries.

This is fine by us realtors as, for the most part, we ourselves love to look at houses. We never seem to tire of the thrill of a new floor plan, new decorating schemes or seeing a different area of the county/state.

In short - for those of us worth our salt - we're not going to rush you. Love will happen when it will happen...

What's important to a true, genuine realtor-matchmaker is that our clients never settle. I believe that when the right home is found, both agent and client will know it.

I've seen and felt it myself! The clients' eyes light up and they get that dreamy look on their faces as they envision what life will be like in their new space.

Hearing their thoughts on how they will arrange certain pieces of furniture or which room they will transform into a future nursery always made me wistful. It really did, it touched my heart and made me tear up a bit. After all, it's not every day that you get to play cupid.

Then, of course, there is the [wedding] planning aspect of it, a requirement before the actual 'knot' is tied.

We realtor-matchmakers change hats for this phase of the relationship, becoming facilitators to insure that all the nuts & bolts secure the union perfectly, smoothly and without undue stress.

And, in the end - ipso facto! - the blissful day arrives and the dream is finally realized. You're home. Home! In your very own home!!

It's a beautiful thing.

Yes, when it comes to making 'happily ever afters' happen, we in the real estate matchmaking business can honestly state: "Been there, done that."

Are you looking for love? A new home to nestle into? A new, rewarding career to embrace? Contact Mary Ellen Courtney, Broker Manager for Terrie O'Connor Realtors – The Gateway Group, Hasbrouck Heights, 201-288-0004. She'll work magic to make your real estate dreams come true!

About Black History Month

Black History Month, or National African American History Month, is an annual celebration of achievements by black Americans and a time for recognizing the central role of African Americans in U.S. history.

The story of Black History Month begins in 1915, half a century after the Thirteenth Amendment abolished slavery in the United States. That September, the Harvard-trained historian, Carter G. Woodson and the prominent minister, Jesse E. Moorland, founded an organization dedicated to researching and promoting achievements by black Americans and other peoples of African descent.

The group sponsored a national Negro History Week in 1926, choosing the second week of February to coincide with the birthdays of Abraham Lincoln and Frederick Douglass. The event inspired schools and communities nationwide to organize local celebrations, establish history clubs and host performances and lectures.

In the decades that followed, mayors of cities across the country began issuing yearly proclamations recognizing Negro History Week.

By the late 1960s, thanks in part to the Civil Rights Movement and a growing awareness of black identity, Negro History Week had evolved into Black History Month on many college campuses.

President Gerald R. Ford officially recognized Black History Month in 1976, calling upon the public to “seize the opportunity to honor the too-often neglected accomplishments of black Americans in every area of endeavor throughout our history.” ###

About Presidents' Day

Presidents' Day is observed on Monday, February 21, 2022. (The third Monday in February.)

Originally established in 1885 in recognition of President George Washington, it is still officially called “Washington’s Birthday” by the federal government.

Traditionally celebrated on February 22—Washington’s actual day of birth—the holiday became popularly known as Presidents’ Day after it was moved as part of 1971’s Uniform Monday Holiday Act.

While several states still have individual holidays honoring the birthdays of George Washington, Abraham Lincoln and other figures, Presidents’ Day is now popularly viewed as a day to celebrate all U.S. presidents past and present.

The story of Presidents' Day date begins in 1800. Following the death of George Washington in 1799, his February 22 birthday became a perennial day of remembrance.

At the time, Washington was venerated as the most important figure in American history, and events like the 1832 centennial of his birth and the start of construction of the Washington Monument in 1848 were cause for national celebration.

While Washington’s Birthday was an unofficial observance for most of the 1800s, it was not until the late 1870s that it became a federal holiday. In 1879, President Rutherford B. Hayes signed it into law.

The shift from Washington’s Birthday to Presidents' Day began in the late 1960s, when Congress proposed a measure known as the Uniform Monday Holiday Act. This law sought to shift the celebration of several federal holidays from specific dates to a series of predetermined Mondays.

The proposed change was seen by many as a novel way to create more three-day weekends for the nation’s workers, and it was believed that ensuring holidays always fell on the same weekday would reduce employee absenteeism.

While some argued that shifting holidays from their original dates would cheapen their meaning, the bill also had widespread support from both the private sector and labor unions and was seen as a sure-fire way to bolster retail sales.

The Uniform Monday Holiday Act also included a provision to combine the celebration of Washington’s Birthday with that of Abraham Lincoln, which fell on February 12. Source: History.com ###

W-R Lions Club Donates to Disaster Relief Fund

"Where there is a need, there is a Lion"

The Wood-Ridge Lions Club did just that and answered the call from Lions Clubs International Foundation, upon its request for donations to support disaster relief funding for the terrible tornado devastation in Kentucky and neighboring states.

In response, Wood-Ridge Lions donated one thousand dollars to this cause.

Lions Clubs International Foundation (LCIF) is the part of Lions Clubs International, Inc. that provides financial support through grants when and where disaster strikes, with Lions among the first to offer aid.

In past years, LCIF contributed funds to the New Jersey Lions to support rebuilding efforts during the aftermath of Superstorm Sandy.

If you wish to help the Wood-Ridge Lions Club in their effort to support helping those affected by this disaster, please forward your donation to Wood-Ridge Lions Club, P.O. Box 166, Wood-Ridge, NJ 07075, specifying "for tornado disaster relief."

Also, the Wood-Ridge Lions are always appreciative of any donation during these difficult times of raising funds for their continuing aid to many sight-related charities and projects, including Camp Marcella (camp for Blind Children), St. Joseph's School for the Blind, The ARC of Bergen and Passaic, Juvenile Diabetes (JDRF), The Foundation for Fighting Blindness, and serving community needs as well. Please send donations as well to Wood-Ridge Lions Club, P.O. Box 166, Wood-Ridge, NJ 07075. We Serve. Provided by Dennis Brubaker. ###

- Officer Kilroe Jr. began working for the Rutherford Police Department in 2018 as a Special Law Enforcement Officer Class I. While working for the Department under the leadership of Police Chief John R. Russo, Officer Kilroe Jr. discovered how much The Borough of Rutherford has to offer, and the sense of community that came with it.

Police Officer Thomas Kilroe Jr. became a Rutherford resident in 2019 and set a goal to become a full time police officer in order to continue serving our community.

He accomplished that goal December 21, 2021 when he graduated from the Bergen County Police Academy as part of class #127 Basic Course for Police Officer.

Meet the SLEOs!

You will notice some new faces around Rutherford in their SLEO Class I uniforms.

Special Law Enforcement Officers are part time employees here at Rutherford Police Department. They wear slightly different, light blue uniforms than Police Officers and will work a rotating schedule Monday - Saturday once they complete their intensive field training.

Part of their daily assignments will include issuing parking violation summonses, responding to non-emergent desk reports, and routine traffic details such as school crossing posts, crowd control and similar duties.

They graduated from the the Bergen County Police Academy on December 16, 2021 earning their Police Training Commission Certificate in Special Law Enforcement Officer Class CLASS I.

Please join us in congratulating and welcoming our new additions:

- SLEO Kareem Mansour is a Bayonne resident who speaks fluent Arabic and English.
- SLEO Kacper Gozdek is a Lyndhurst resident and an active member of the Rutherford Volunteer Ambulance Corps. He will assist with medical calls while on-duty, providing a quicker response time when Ambulance Corps volunteers are not "on-duty" to our community members and visitors.

- SLEO Talin Batra, Rutherford resident, R.H.S. 2018 graduate, is fluent in Hindi and English.

Thank you to the dedicated staff and instructors at the academy for making this course possible.

FINAL ALARM: Despite heavy rains, on January 9, 2022, at about 6 p.m., the Wood-Ridge Fire Department paid their respects during the traditional drive-by honoring FF Timothy A. Sullivan. A huge American Flag was draped from two ladder trucks, with an honor guard posted near the turnout gear display as the funeral hearse arrived. WRFD Chaplain/Deacon Nick Valdez provided a Benediction. As the hearse opened, a detail held a flag folding service, which was then presented to the family. FF Thomas Bischoff, Jr. tolled the Memorial Bell and a piper played as the Department gave a hand salute. Photos by Dennis Kronyak Sr. ###

FF Timothy Allen Sullivan, 67, answered his final alarm on Wednesday, January 5, 2022.

It was with heavy hearts that the Wood-Ridge Fire Department announced the Line of Duty Death of Firefighter Timothy A. Sullivan from 9/11 related cancer.

On September 11, 2001, as part of the WTC Service and Rescue Task Force, TA responded with Ambulance 907 to Liberty State Park and later, Ellis Island, where he assisted in transporting survivors to area hospitals.

According to Fire Chief Kevin Cribben, Tim is believed to have died from cancer he developed as a result of contact with the dust and debris that covered the victims who traveled across the Hudson River.

A lifelong Wood-Ridge resident, he was an active member of the WRFD for 48 years. TA, as he was known, joined the WRFD in September of 1973 and was assigned badge number 10. He served as Emergency Squad Captain from 1981-1983. He was cited for bravery, receiving 3 Unit Citations and one Life Saving Medal.

In his later years, TA was most prominent in WRFD Central Communications Room. During emergencies we knew he would find whatever resource was needed and get them to us. During storm standbys, TA would spend the night at the desk, monitoring the radio and dispatching calls.

TA's strong personality, sarcastic wit and signature cigar will be sorely missed. Meeting nights and Sunday cleanings will never be the same. His stories will long live on in the hearts and minds of those that served with him.

Additionally, Sullivan was a highly decorated 30-year veteran of the Bergen County Sheriff's Office.

He held the title of Fire Inspector/Fire Official. He was a Delegate and Life Member of the NJ State Firemen Relief Association, was a past president and a current Executive Board member for the New Jersey Honor Legion, where he established and coordinated the NJ Honor Legion Christmas in July program at Joseph M. Sanzari Children's Hospital at Hackensack Meridian Health, a life member of PBA Local 134 and a current member of the PBA Local 600. He was an officer for the Bergen Mall Police. Photos by Dennis Kronyak Sr. ###
