Matthew Clerkin Earns Eagle Scout Designation

Matthew J. Clerkin, of Wood-Ridge, earned the highest rank in Scouting -- The Eagle Scout Badge.

To earn this award Matthew had to complete a minimum of 21 merit badges, hold positions of leadership in his troop and complete a major community service project.

While his karate class was holding a demonstration for a group of exceptional individuals, the seed for Matthew’s Eagle Scout Project was planted. He related to them because of his own battle with autism. Matthew decided that his project had to be something that would meet the needs of this group.

His project was to design and build a Memory Garden in Rutherford. With the approval of key individuals in Rutherford a site was approved. Matthew ran a bake sale to raise the money and solicited materials from local business and community leaders. The project was completed with the help of his fellow Scouts. The Memory Garden is lined with slates. The names of each individual in the special needs groups were painted on slates by the group members themselves. This is so that they could come and visit their own handiwork. Hundreds of bulbs and perennials which will bloom and grow for years to come were planted in the garden. A birdbath and a bench are also part of the garden. Matthew joined the Webelos in 2004. In 2006, after earning the highest award in Cub Scouting, the Arrow of Light, he joined Boy Scout Troup 181. From 2006 to the present, he has earned 24 merit badges. Matthew is currently the Assistant Senior Patrol Leader. At the ceremony, held at the VFW Hall in Hasbrouck Heights on April 22, 2012, Matthew received many acknowledgements and citations from local, county and state groups and politicians as well as from the President and Vice-President of the United States. Matthew is a junior at St. Mary High School, where he is also a member of the National Honor Society. This summer he will be attending Ryder College for a week as a Boys State Delegate representing the Wood-Ridge American Legion. The Boy Scouts of America’s highest rank was originally conceived as the Wolf Scout, but in 1911 it was changed to Eagle Scout.

The fact that a boy is an Eagle Scout has always carried with it a special significance, not only in Scouting but also as he enters higher education, business or industry and community service.

Only about five percent of all Boy Scouts earn the rank of Eagle Scout. Story and photos provided by Marie and Peter Gallo Jr. ###

The Free Public Library of Hasbrouck Heights has an- nounced its plans for the Sum- mer Reading Program: Dream Big—Read!

The program is designed to promote reading and literacy throughout the summer for children of all ages.

Children are expected to read, or be read to, for 2½ hours per week. Each week, they can stop by The Library to show their time log and receive stickers and prizes. When they complete five weeks of reading, they receive a special prize and certificate of completion.

In addition to the reading program, The Library will be offering Story Times, Book Discussions, Chess Club, and other special events for all ages.

To kick off the summer fun, The Library has invit- ed Scientologists to perform a show that will combine science, and science to jump start your imagination on Monday, June 25, 2012, from 7-7:45 p.m. Chil- dren in grades K-6 are invited to attend.

Registration for the sum- mer programs begins on Friday June 22 and must be done in person. The summer reading program begins July 5 and ends on August 24. Registration is required for all events, and first preference is given to residents and students of Hasbrouck Heights.

For more details and a complete list of activities for the entire summer, please call 201-288-0485.

The Grapes of Wrath
On Wednesday, June 13, 2012, from 7-8 p.m., the Carlstadt Library monthly book discussion group will discuss “The Grapes of Wrath” by John Steinbeck.

The migration of the Joad family to California from their dust-bowl farm in Oklahoma during the Great Depression is an experience of hopelessness of economic depression and unemployment. Copies of the book are available at The Library for patrons to take out. Refresh- ments will be served, and all are welcome to attend! Call 201-438-8865 for more information.

Choosing the Right Checking Account

A checking account is the primary reason why many people use a bank.

The right checking account will serve your needs without costing a lot of money in fees or forcing you to maintain a high balance to avoid those fees. The wrong checking account will cost you plenty.

Open an account that requires a higher minimum balance than you’re comfortable maintaining, bounce a check, write more checks than your account allows, ask for your checks to be returned each month -- just a few of the more common ways institutions pick your pocket with fees. Some institutions charge fees for visiting tellers, hard copies of statements or using a deposit or withdrawal slip from the bank’s counter.

The only way to find out what checking account is right for you is examining your banking habits. Most people want a checking account that allows unlimited check writing.

Some checking accounts have a limit on the number of checks you can write each month. Exceed that number and you could find yourself paying a fee for each extra check.

A critical element in selecting a checking account is knowing the minimum balance you need to maintain. Many institutions let you open a checking account with less than $100 but require a much higher minimum -- maybe several hundred dollars higher -- to avoid fees.

Watch out for accounts that charge a monthly service fee regardless of how much money is kept in the account.

Is earning interest important to you? Interest checking accounts usually require a much higher minimum balance to earn interest or have other qualifications.

If you use a checking account simply to write checks and you just want to keep enough to cover payments, or if you can’t be sure how much you’ll keep in the account, find a free checking account.

Free checking accounts have no monthly service charge or per-item fees regardless of balance or activity. But often you can have a free account by doing something as simple as having your paycheck directly deposited into your account, or passing up the return of checks or check images.

Bouncing checks is very expensive. Non-sufficient funds fees are usually the highest fees charged. If you have trouble balancing a checkbook and you find yourself bouncing even one or two checks per year, it may be worthwhile to secure overdraft protection.

ATMs also play a role when choosing a checking account. It’s nice to find your bank’s ATMs on every other street corner, but the best checking account for you may be at an institution that doesn’t have a lot of ATMs. Find out what fees are charged if you use another institution’s ATM and if there is a possibility of refunding some of them.

Safety and security: Is the bank FDIC insured, and do you trust their security procedures? When you hold money in an FDIC insured account, you won’t lose your money if the bank fails. Note that you may have a major headache dealing with a bank failure, but FDIC insurance has historically worked quickly.

Wings & Wheels Expo 2012
June 16-17 at Teterboro Airport

There will be magic in the air, and a puff of smoke, when the B-17 Flying Fortress cranks-up the distinctive sound of each of the four Wright-R-1820 Cyclone turbo supercharged radial engines (made at Curtiss-Wright, Wood-Ridge). The Yankee Air Museum (www.yankuemuseum.org), based in Michigan, will fly into Teterboro with the Yankee Lady, a World War II B-17 Flying Fortress bomber. For a fee of $450, the B-17 offers unforgettable rides to 12 “crew members” at a time. When not flying, visitors will have the opportunity to go on board and explore this heavy bomber during Wings & Wheels. Two WWII aircraft will also be featured:

- Spitfire, a British single-seat front-line fighter aircraft used during WWII. Designed as a short-range, high-performance interceptor considered as the backbone of the RAF Fighter command.
- P-51 Mustang, an American long-range, single-seat fighter and fighter-bomber used during WWII and Korean War. Used by the Eighth Air Force to escort bombers in raids over Germany.

Additional aircraft scheduled to be on display include:
- F/A-18 Hornet, in adversary colors and used in air-to-air training will be displayed. The F/A-18 has been used by the Blue Angels since 1986.
- E-2C Hawkeye, known as the Airborne Early Warning System, can track more than 600 targets and control more than 400 intercepts at one time.

Additional aircraft scheduled for exhibit include:
- EA-6 Prowler, Navy SNJ, T-68 Texan II, Bell Jet Ranger Helicopter, E-10, Cessna 318 Skymaster, Coast Guard HH-52A Helicopter, Rutan Defiant, NJ State Police helicopter, etc.

Hangar One will be filled with many exhibits to include:
- The Army Air Forces Historical Association provides an extensive educational display dedicated to preserving the history of the United States Army Air Forces during World War II.
- Various organizations will provide displays to include: Civil Air Patrol, U.S. Naval Sea Cadet Corps, Paramus Flying Club, Great Dane Rescue, etc. The Port Authority of NY & NJ will display their crash/boom truck and runway maintenance equipment.

Additionally, over 150 street rods, old school gassers, classic cars, military vehicles, etc. will be exhibited, and feature the “Green Hornet” car plus two “Batmobiles” (from the TV and movie). Show car and a “Salute to Veterans.”

This year’s event will be a huge success.

If Your Oil Burner Were A Car

If your oil burner were a car, it would travel 640,000 miles in 20 years. The average oil burner uses at least 800 gallons a year at 1 gallon an hour. The average speed driven for the average car trip is 40 mph. 800 hours times 40 mph equals 32,000 miles a year -- times 20 years equals 640,000 miles. What would a 20-year-old Dodge Dart with over 600,000 miles look like? Would you hop in that car and drive back and forth from New York to LA (that’s 32,000 miles) 5.5 times a heating season without giving it a second thought?

Replacing an old inefficient boiler or furnace is one of the best investments you can make. Where else can you get over a 20% tax free return on your investment?

Call for a FREE analysis of your heating system. See if upgrading your equipment is right for you. There is no cost or obligation.

Strawberry Moon

The June full moon appears on Monday, June 4, 2012, at 7:11 a.m. It is called the “Full Strawberry Moon.”

According to the Farmer’s Almanac, this name was universal to every Algonquin tribe. The name reflects the relatively short season for harvesting strawberries that comes each year during June. Other names include the “Full Hot Moon,” or in Europe, the “Full Rose Moon.”

W-R Celebrates Arbor Day

On Saturday, April 21, 2012, the Boy Scouts, Girl Scout Daisies and the Wood-Ridge Lions Club all gathered to support the Shade Tree Commission celebrating Arbor Day.

In addition to supporting Arbor Day, the Lions Club donated $300 toward the purchase of new tree saplings. Lions International has a worldwide goal of planting over one million new trees.

Dennis Brubaker, Lions member and past President, said, “We are very proud to support the commission and help with the Lions International’s goal.”

Wood-Ridge Shade Tree Commissioner George Meglio was happy to see the turn out by the Scouts; Meglio stated, “Tying together Arbor Day, the Lions goal and working with the Scouts was a great experience and a real small town family type event.”

Under the direction of Victor Fontana, Shade Tree member, the Boy Scouts and Daisies all worked hard to plant 50 Norway Spruce saplings at the Union Avenue Recreation Field.

The Mayor, Council and DPW provided all the tools needed to get these trees planted, and continues its effort to care for the urban forest within Wood-Ridge.

Scout leaders Louis Agude-lo and Sandy O’Byrne, were in attendance and provided true leadership in this planting effort. Meglio went on to say “I send my heartfelt thanks to all the Scouts who participated in this event. In 1874 J. Sterling Morton, Arbor Day Sponsor, was proud of the success of Arbor Day and noted, “Other holidays repose upon the past, Arbor Day proposes for the future.”

Meglio continued, “In the future these children will pass through this park, and they will admire these full grown and majestic trees, and they will speak of the day that planted little saplings and claim that they were part of this beautiful urban forest. That will be a great feeling for them.” Story provided by George Meglio.

Carlstadt Students Walk for Earth Day

On April 25, 2012, The Carlstadt Public School held its 5th Annual “Walk to School Wednesday” as part of its week long celebration of Earth Day. Children met staff members at 8 a.m. at various locations around town then walked to meet each group along the way. By the time the “human” school bus reached CPS, more than 220 students had joined the queue.

Students knew they were helping to save the atmosphere from greenhouse gases one step at a time. This activity is one of the many planned for each day of the week by Carlstadt Education Association members. CPS students know how to Reduce, Reuse, Recycle and Respect their planet. Keep Wood-Ridge Beautiful Day June 3

Volunteers are once again needed to help clean the shopping districts and raise awareness of the effects of litter in the community during the 13th Annual Keep Wood-Ridge Beautiful Day.

Last year, over 125 volunteers participated! Both adults and children are welcome. The Bergen County Board of Health will provide cleaning utensils, gloves, brooms and bags.

Veterans Today
By Thomas Marshall
VFW District 2 Commander

June marks the time of year when the Veterans groups go to Conventions to elect new leaders for the next year. The VFW, and the American Legion are always looking for members. If you served, stop by and join. We do a lot for Veterans but also the Community at large.

This June marks an anniversary of a chaotic moment in American History.

Six months after the Pearl Harbor attack Admiral Yamamoto wanted to eliminate America's Aircraft carriers in the Pacific. He planned and ordered Admiral Nagumo to attack a small island 1,300 miles northwest of Hawaii known as Midway, to draw the American Carriers out.

American code breakers broke the Japanese code and knew that Midway Island was their next target. The U.S. Navy scrambled to get as many ships together for the upcoming fight as they could.

Marines guarding the island soon picked up on radar the approach of a large Japanese task force heading their way.

Bombers were soon in the air to attack the Imperial Fleet. Their fighter escort was kept back to protect the Island.

They wouldn't have to wait long. Japanese bombers were soon over Midway Island.

Anti-aircraft fire soon filled the sky and the fighters went up to meet the enemy. They were overwhelmed by greater numbers and most of the planes were shot down by the Japanese fighters.

The American bombers that left before the Japanese arrived and attacked the Japanese fleet, but none of them scored a hit. They would be shot down by antiaircraft and zero fighters protecting the carrier.

We carry sports figures down the canyon of heroes for winning the Super Bowl – how about the American Pilot on this bombing mission that, knowing his bomber was too damaged by enemy fire to make it back, tried to crash it into the bridge of the Akagi.

He missed, but Nagumo didn’t miss his try. His concern was now shifted to the problem of the airfield still intact on Midway and wanted to destroy it to prevent further use by American planes. He soon received a report of an American task force just east of his position and it is recommended to him to attack it at once.

All you armchair Admirals out there, do you launch a second wave at Midway or do you load your planes with torpedoes to attack the American fleet?

Don’t think too hard on it. It doesn’t matter anyway. Nagumo and his flagship are doomed. He was second guessing himself but Admiral Spruance of the U.S. Task force knew exactly what he was going to do.

The USS Hornet, The Yorktown, and the Enterprise were all ahead full on a course directly for the Japanese task force. Their planes were already in the air.

Torpedo Squadron 8 from the Hornet struck first and didn’t get a single hit on any Japanese carrier.

Squadron 6 from the Enterprise came in next with no fighter escort. Again no hits and all planes lost.

These attacks did keep the enemy occupied and when a third squadron showed up from the southeast, most of the Japanese fighters went to meet them.

This was the crucial moment in this battle. From the northeast came the Vertical bombers from the Yorktown and the Enterprise. They were low on fuel but located the ships just in the nick of time.

The carrier Kaga received two hits from these planes. The carrier Akagi was hit and the carrier Soryu was hit. All left burning and would soon be on the bottom of the Ocean.

Only the Hiryu was unscathed and launched a counter attack which damaged the Yorktown.

She was attacked again and she received more damage. Yorktown would later be torpedoed and sunk.

Hiryu would not escape. She was attacked in the afternoon and bombed by the planes from Enterprise, to share the same fate as the other carriers in her task force.

The Japanese Imperial Fleet would lose four aircraft carriers, an oiler and a heavy cruiser along with 3,057 men. America would lose Yorktown.

For all those that spent April looking at video and pictures of Titanic, you won’t get that here. Yorktown was found in 1998 along with a large piece of debris identified as part of the hangar from Kaga.

The rest of the ship along with the resting place of the Soryu, Kaga and Hiryu remain unknown.

Here's to the Marines and Sailors who made the fight of their lives in the middle of the Pacific at a place called Midway 70 years ago. ###

Mortgage rates continue to be the rosy picture of the housing market. Concerns in late March had us seeing rates for 30-year fixed conforming loans rise above 4% for the first time in 2012. This sparked fears that the low rate party was ending. But renewed worries about European debt brought investors streaming back into U.S. debt. And that, thankfully, served to bring mortgage rates in April back down into the threes.

Too Much Sun is Bad for Your Skin

Basking and working in the sun, without protecting your skin can lead to wrinkles, premature aging and, worst of all, skin cancer.

Sun damage is also responsible for weathered-looking skin, broken capillaries, wrinkles and hyperpigmentation, or age spots. While people are more aware of the sun’s harmful effects, many do not protect themselves or use sunscreens.

Ultraviolet (UV) radiation that affects the skin is classified as UVA and UVB. UVB is the longest of the UV. It can penetrate into the deeper layers of the skin and plays a major role in skin aging and wrinkling. UVA penetrates glass and clouds.

UVB is responsible for burning, tanning, accelerating the skin aging and also plays a key role in the development of skin cancer. UVB varies by season, location and time of day. The most intense amount of UVB hits the U.S. between 10:00 a.m. and 4:00 p.m. You should not let the sun burn you. Always wear sunscreen, select a product that provides “broad-spectrum” protection for both UVA and UVB. If you are going to be near the beach or pool, make sure it is water-resistant and doesn’t wash off in the water. Use an SPF of 15 or higher.

When to apply sunscreen

Apply sunscreen 20 minutes before going out into the sun to give it time to absorb into the skin. Be generous and regular -- about 1 ounce every 2 hours, and more often if you are swimming or perspiring. Apply sunscreen to the top of your ears, back of hands, neck and toes.

Other protection tips:

• Use a hat to shield your face where sun damage frequently occurs.

• Be aware that the window glass in cars does not block all of the sun’s harmful rays, making the driver’s left side more prone to sun damage. Apply sunscreen before long car rides.

Mosquito Season is Abuzz

Standing water means you could be raising mosquitoes! Many generations of mos- quitoes can breed right in your own yard. All mosquitoes need water to complete their life cycle. They are known to travel long distances from their water source.

Some mosquitoes lay their eggs in standing water where they hatch in just a day or two. They can do this in water that has been standing for as little as 4 days.

Other mosquitoes may lay their eggs in old tires, tin cans, or any other water-holding containers including bird baths, watering cans, and small swimming pools, ornamental ponds, clogged gutters, flowerpots or the drip plates beneath them, cups, glasses, drink cans, etc.

The eggs may remain un- hatched for weeks or even months until they are covered with water!

Home and yard checklist:

• Get rid of old tires, tin cans, buckets, drums, bottles, or any water holding containers
• Fill in or drain any low places (puddles, ruts) in yard
• Keep drains, ditches, and culverts clean of weeds and trash so water will drain properly
• Cover trash containers to keep out rain water
• Repair leaky pipes and outdoor faucets
• Empty plastic wading pool at least once a week and store it indoors when not in use
• Cover your backyard pool is properly cared for while on vacation
• Fill in tree rot holes and hollow stumps that hold water with sand or concrete
• Change the water in bird baths and plant pots or drip trays at least once a week.
• Keep grass cut short and shrubbery well trimmed around the house so adult mos- quitoes will not hide there
• Keep gutters clean and free of debris and leaves
• Store boats covered or upside down.

Protect yourself from mosquito bites

• If possible, avoid being outdoors in the early morning or in the evening.
• If you must go out, wear long-sleeved shirts, long pants and socks.
• The EPA and CDC advise the use of a mosquito repellent, following the instructions on the label.
• Check with your pediatrici- an before using a repellent on children.
• Keep windows and doors closed or covered with screens to prevent mosquitoes from entering the house.
• Repair screens on windows, doors, porches, and patios.
• Some mosquito control methods do not do a very good job. For example, bug zappers do not work well to control bit- ing mosquitoes since they do not emit carbon dioxide.
• Various birds and bats will eat mosquitoes, but there is little evidence that this cuts down on the number of mos- quitoes around homes.
• Electronic mosquito rep- elling devices don’t stop mos- quitoes biting people either.

What is SPF? Sun Protection Factor (SPF) measures the protection provided by a sunscreen against UVB.

Higher SPF numbers are preferable, but SPF measures protection only from UVB - not UVA rays. When choosing a sunscreen, select a product that provides “broad-spectrum” protection for both UVA and UVB.

Financing Home Purchases 2012

Mortgage rates continue to be the rosy picture of the housing market. Concerns in late March had us seeing rates for 30-year fixed conforming loans rise above 4% for the first time in 2012. This sparked fears that the low rate party was ending. But renewed worries about European debt brought investors streaming back into U.S. debt. And that, thankfully, served to bring mortgage rates in April back down into the threes.

These are truly the glory days for mortgage borrowers, at least from the standpoint of interest rates.

Times like these won’t last forever, of course, but for now, it’s like wow! The return of rates to record-low territory has given a boost to refinanc- ers, with the number of refi applications surging. Spring homebuyers, though, should know that they are not in direct competition with the refinanc- ers for the attention of lenders. Purchase applications almost always get priority.

I was reading that approximately one third of the refi applications today are from underwater homeowners who are starting to get the word that they can now refinance, thanks to the HARP rules for loans owned by Fannie Mae and Freddie Mac.

Freddie has, apparently, been more stingy in its ap- proval of HARP-qualified bor- rowers, but word has it that they are not in direct competition with the refinancers for the attention of lenders. Purchase applications almost always get priority.

Crowns

What are crowns?
A crown is a restoration that covers, or "caps" a tooth to restore it to its normal shape and size, strengthening and improving the appearance of the tooth.

Crowns are necessary when a tooth is generally broken down and fillings won’t solve the problem. If a tooth is cracked, a crown holds the tooth together to seal the cracks so the damage doesn’t get worse.

Crowns are also used to support a large filling when there isn’t enough of the tooth remaining, attach a bridge, protect weak teeth from fracturing, restore fractured teeth, or cover badly shaped or disfiguring, restore fractured teeth, protect weak teeth from fractures, remaining, attach a bridge, there isn’t enough of the tooth structure removal, hence, they cover more of the tooth then veneers. Crowns are stationary and are customarily indicated for teeth that have sustained significant loss of structure, or to replace missing teeth. Crowns may be placed on natural teeth or dental implants.

How should I take care of my crown?
To prevent damaging or fracturing the crowns, avoid chewing hard foods, ice or other objects. Also you want to avoid teeth grinding. Besides visiting your dentist and brushing twice a day, cleaning between your teeth is vital with crowns. Floss or interdental cleaners (specially shaped brushes and sticks) are important tools to remove plaque from crown area where the gum meets the tooth. Plaque in that area can cause dental decay and gum disease. Ref. sources and compilations, the Academy of General Dentistry. Dental patients reference information.

How will I find it look natural?
Yes. The dentist’s main goal is the create crowns that look like natural teeth. That is why dentists take an impression. To achieve a certain look, a number of factors are considered, such as the color, bite, shape and length of your natural teeth. Anyone of these factors alone can affect your appearance.

If you have a certain cosmetic look in mind for your crown, discuss it with your dentist at your initial visit. When the procedure is complete, your teeth will not only be stronger, but they may be more attractive.

Why crowns and not veneers?
Crowns require more tooth preparation than veneers. A temporary crown is fitted over the tooth until the permanent crown is made. On the next visit, the dentist removes the temporary crown and cements the permanent crown onto the tooth.

AARP Members Love Bobby Byrne

Thirty-one friends and members of the Central Bergen Chapter 418, AARP traveled to Doolan’s Restaurant in Spring Lake on April 22, 2012. They enjoyed an afternoon out, dining and being entertained by a production of “The Best of Broadway.”

What they received was a marvellous meal and a show that would be a sell out if it were on Broadway.

The show headliner was Bobby Byrne (Mr. Broadway). Supporting him was comedian Richie Byrne and a band of excellent musicians.

Richie Byrne proved to be one of the funniest comedians around. He has a wholesome act that is extremely funny and entertaining. He is the warm up act for the Dr. Oz TV Show.

Bobby Byrne has been a favorite of mine for over forty years. He puts his heart into every song he sings and has a commanding presence. He had his audience cheering, yelling, clapping and singing along with him. He sang Broadway songs, Irish songs, Italian songs, and an operatic song. He amazed all with his memory when he selected seven members of the audience at random, asked them their names and how to spell each name; then sang a song recalling each name and spelling the names also. He is a natural entertainer with charisma and wit.

All who spent the afternoon at Doolan’s Restaurant felt they were treated to an unforgettable afternoon. One in which the food was outstanding and the entertainment was “First Rate!” Special thanks to Isabelle and Mike Byrne who were the hosts for the occasion.

AARP Members Learn More About US Presidents

Retired educator and present treasurer of the local AARP, Peter Gallo entertained the Central Bergen Chapter AARP #418 with a program entitled “Unknown Facts and Trivia about our Presidents.”

The program took place on May 11, 2012, the last meeting before the Club installs its officers at a luncheon in June.

Mr. Gallo focused on eleven of the forty-three men who served as presidents, specifically George Washington, Thomas Jefferson, John Quincy Adams, Andrew Jackson, William Harrison, John Tyler, Zachary Taylor, Franklin Pierce, James Buchanan, Abraham Lincoln, and James Garfield. He provided evidence that the most powerful men in the United States are not superhuman; they have their own problems and peculiarity and are just men.

Some of the facts presented were that in the 56 presidential elections held since the first in 1788, thirty-one presidents have had minority experience; 14 vice presidents have become president; 13 men have served at least two or more full terms; and more Republicans than Democrats have been elected president.

Mr. Gallo also discussed the role of the House of Representatives in electing two of our presidents; the reasons some of our leaders fought duels; the reason one of our presidents was branded a traitor; which president left his bride-to-be at the altar; and what happened when one of our presidents refused to take the oath of office on the day it was scheduled.

During the business portion of the meeting, the members re-elected the present officers: Marie Gallo, president, Frank Zabransky, 1st vice-president, David Davidowicz, 2nd vice-president and assistant treasurer, June Raymond and Janet Wright, co-secretaries, and Peter Gallo, treasurer. ***

Leisure Club Visits Lancaster, PA

May 15, 2012 started off as a gloomy day with light showers, then heavy rain. However, by 10 a.m. the weather changed and the day turned out to be a warm comfortable day. This was the day members of the Leisure Club traveled to Lancaster, Pennsylvania. The group attended the Sight & Sound Theatre’s production of “Jonah.”

Jonah is the Biblical story of a prophet who fled because he did not like the message God had given him to share.

As Jonah flees from God, God causes a chain of events to bring Jonah back to his calling. One of them is being swallowed by a whale. While inside the great fish, Jonah repents then God commands the fish to spit him up on dry land. Then God reiterates his call to Jonah.

Although Jonah responds to the Lord, the sincerity behind his obedience is unclear.

Finally, a series of events take place which brings Jonah closer to God. A visit to Sight & Sound Theatre is truly a unique experience. The productions bring familiar Biblical stories to life on stage through original songs and spectacular staging. The professional actors attired in elaborate costumes, carefully detailed sets, trained animals, unmatched special effects and memorable music provide an event that the audience will never forget.

After the musical, the Leisure Club members dined at the famous Millers Smorgasbord Restaurant in Lancaster. Since 1928, the restaurant has been providing excellent meals. They have received the PA preferred rating, the AAA recommended, and have been Reader’s Choice and ServSafe Award Winners. Story by Peter Gallo. ***

Seniors Enjoy Bannon’s Performance

All monthly meetings of the Leisure Club start off with a discussion of the business of the Club followed by a program. The meeting held on May 9, 2012, was no different than any others, but the program was outstanding. Club members were entertained by a dazzling performance by vocalist Robert Bannon.

Mr. Bannon was able to convey the emotions and the story of the songs he sang. He successfully engaged his audience in his performance. He was able to capture their attention as well as their hearts. It’s programs like this that the members look forward to.

During the business portion of the afternoon, Club members were reminded that the annual bake sale is being held on Thursday, July 19 in the Senior Center from noon to 4 p.m. The event is sponsored by the Mayor and Council and is open to all Hasbrouck Heights senior citizens. You must sign up in the Senior Center or in the Borough Clerk’s office.

Reflections
Wanted: A Friend
By Pastor Iraida Raiz de Porras, Pastor
First United Methodist Church, Hasbrouck Heights
Dear beloved child,
It’s been quite a while since we last had a meaningful quality time conversation. You have been through a lot, I know; but somehow you put the blame on me as if I didn’t care what happens to you on a day-to-day basis.
At times you can be so independent and self-sufficient and overwhelmingly busy that you don’t realize I have been by your side all along.
If you and I were in a true relationship you would know me better.
I yearn for your trust and for your love. I’m here for you all the time. I don’t want you to worry about anything.
I would rather you be still, not motionless, but seeking me anywhere at any time.
I want you to laugh and sing and rejoice every day, even during the toughest moments. That’s why I trust you. I have made each day for you so that you may live it to the fullest, according to my plan.
You see, your plans have consequences; my plans have purpose.
I don’t want to impose, but if you would let me in your heart I would guide you so that you wouldn’t have to face the consequences of every rash decision you make.
Don’t get me wrong, you and I will disagree; plenty of times! There will be times when you ask me for something and I will not grant it; not because I don’t love you or don’t listen to you but because I DO love you and I AM listening to you.
The things you ask for sometimes are not convenient or practical or may even feed into your very own personal agenda.
It might hurt others or yourself and I know deep down you don’t want to do that.
But even when you choose and decide on your own and you have to face the difficult consequences of your choices I am still by your side. I promised to be with you till the end of time. I am faithful.
I see, I saw all my children struggling too much. I knew that they needed someone to help them understand the consequences of their choices and I still love you today. My love is for all; steadfast, unfaithing, and everlasting. It knows of no favorites. I laid my life for you.
I am faithful.
You see, I saw all my children struggling too much. I knew that I needed someone to help them understand the love I have for you.
I decided to spend some time with my children. Through Jesus’ presence I showed how much I truly love them and how I still love you today.
My love is for all; steadfast, unfaithing, and everlasting. It knows of no favorites. I laid my life for you.
I am faithful.
You see, I saw all my children struggling too much. I knew that I needed someone to help them understand the love I have for you.

Free rides and amusements were presented including a 24-foot hydraulic rock climbing wall, bungee trampoline, 24-foot hydraulic rock climb, and a variety of inflatables.

The dunk tank was a big hit. Police Chief Michael Colaneri and several Borough Officials were good sports in taking a turn at "The Chair."

Over 150 unique craft, collectibles, specialty vendors and many Hasbrouck Heights businesses participated.

This FREE event was made possible through the generosity of sponsors (See ad on this page.)

The event was hosted by the Borough of Hasbrouck Heights and the Mayor’s Business Community Committee.

Hasbrouck Heights strives to be a family-friendly town and I believe this is just one of the ways in which we show it,” said Mayor Rose Heck.

A Train Ride “Shore” To Please

How often do you drive to the shore? How many times have you been stuck in traffic on the New Jersey Turnpike and the Garden State Parkway?

These days, with the cost of gas fluctuating every week, the train is your best alternative. As NJ Transit says, it’s “the way to go.”

We live near three major passenger train lines. There are the Pascack Valley Line, Bergen County Line, and the Main Line.

All three lines drop you off at one of two major termini, Secaucus Junction and Hoboken Terminal. Secaucus and Hoboken are just minutes from each other. The fares are reasonable. The average round-trip cost to the New Jersey shore is $28.

If you wish to travel to the shore by train, the vending machines give you the choice of connection via Secaucus or Hoboken.

The North Jersey Coast Line local trains operate out of New York City’s Penn Station every hour. Long Branch is an hour and thirty minute ride.

Connecting through Hoboken is your very best option. As opposed to the North Jersey Coast Line local service out of New York-Penn, NJ Transit operates express service to Long Branch and Bay Head. The expresses skip many of the local stops.

The ride on the express is thirty to forty-five minutes shorter than the local service.

When getting off in Belmar, Spring Lake, Manasquan, Brielle, Pleasant Beach, or Bay Head, the beach is within easy walking distance. You’ll be on the beach in no time.

Having frequently taken trips to the shore over the years, I have seen tons of beach goers on board the train.

They’re all decked out in their beach outfits, carrying their beach bags, and boogie boards. There’s no need to feel left out.

Here is another big hint to share with you. Tons of people love to go hiking down the shore on the boardwalks. To accommodate that, NJ Transit allows bicycles on board its trains. Many of the cars have areas onboard where you can place your bike. There is no charge for taking a bike with you. Bikes ride FREE.

This coming summer season is going to be a heavily traveled one. We have already had some wild weather this past month, and there’s definitely a whole lot more to follow.

When it comes to traveling to the New Jersey shore, the train is your best bet. With the level of traffic on the highways and the unpredictable gas prices, let NJ Transit help you avoid the inconvenience.

During the summer, we have a lot to look forward to. We have perfect tans to maintain, refreshing dips to throw into the ocean to enjoy, volleyball games to play, ice cream trucks to chase after, and TRAINS TO CATCH.

Firefighters Bail Out

On Saturday morning, April 14, 2012, 26 members of the Wood-Ridge Fire Department learned how to bail out using the Scott EZ-Scapet 1 Personal Escape System (PES).

The 8-hour comprehensive course included 2-hours in-house lectures with 6-hours practical training at the Bergen County Fire Academy 2-story prefabricated simulator. Each firefighter practiced using the device six times. For safety, a harness was used during this training session.

The PES is an integrated self-rescue waist belt that allows firefighters to escape danger by jumping out of a window and descending 50 feet from a danger on life safety rope rated for at least 4,000 pounds static load.

The system's hand brakes are designed for use with gloved hands for easy deployment and controlled descent.

A durable forged-alloy steel hook makes it easy to anchor the system to a permanent fixture in the room, designed to fit around pipe or the framework found in most apartments and office buildings.

These integrated self-rescue devices are compliant with the NFPA standards.

The PES were included in FEMA Federal Assistance for Firefighters Grant (AFG) grant for 36 SCBAs (self contained breathing apparatus) the Wood-Ridge Fire Department was awarded. Photos provided by the WRFD. ###

Euclid Kindergartens Visit HH Public Safety Building

At the Police Department, they toured Chief Michael Colaneri's ofce, the cells, police desk, interrogation room, and a police car.

At the Fire Department, firefighter Chris Halloran talked to the students about fire safety and gave them a tour of the firehouse. They also got to walk through the inside of an ambulance.

Firefighter Pete Kolodziej showed them how firefighters crawl wearing their turnout gear in order to keep away from the smoke when there is a real fire. The students watched a firefighter climb up the ladder on the ladder truck. Photos provided by Patricia McSweeney. ###

Scouts Visit CFD Fire House

On Wednesday, April 25, 2012, Boy Scout Troop 181 visited the Carlstadt Fire Department as part of their requirement to earn the Fire Safety merit badge.

Robert Moore, former Chief of the Carlstadt Fire Department, showed the boys the various pieces of equipment the department uses when battling fires or in their many rescue calls.

He demonstrated the use of the infra-red vision monitor which detects heat and explained how much water each truck could carry.

He showed the boys how the hooks were used to pull a ceiling down to check for fires between floors and determine a building safety.

He explained the oxygen equipment and jacket and protective clothing each fireman wears and what it can safeguard against. Each boy was also required to prepare a home fire escape plan and fill out a home safety check list to fulfill the requirements of the merit badge.

Mr. Moore had visited the Boy Scout Troop meeting the prior week and gave a talk on fire safety which included fire extinguishers and types of home fire detectors and what you should do in case of a fire or an emergency.

The boys were very interested in what Mr. Moore taught them, as were the adults present, and everyone learned something.

The Fire Safety merit badge gives the Scouts real life information that they can carry with them throughout their years.

Summer Safety

- Store gasoline in safety cans manufactured and labeled for that purpose. Gasoline should never be stored inside your home. Gasoline should be stored outside, or in a well ventilated shed.
- Don’t refuel lawn mowers, trimmers, edgers or other gasoline powered equipment while hot because the fumes may ignite and start a flash fire. Allow the equipment to cool.
- Use a funnel to prevent spills.
- Keep fertilizers and pool chemicals away from gasoline, oil and fuels. Pool chemicals (chlorines) and fertilizers (nittrates) are strong oxidizers and react violently with fuel vapors (hydrocarbons). Powdered and pellet chlorine should be kept in a cool, dry place. If water enters a chlorine container, it can react and possibly explode. Never add water to chlorine -- add chlorine to water to prevent a splash or violent reaction.
- Pesticides should not be accessible to children or pets and should be kept in tightly closed containers in a cool, dry place. If exposed to pesticides, rinse the affected materials off immediately and seek emergency treatment. Bring the container with you. ###

Moonachie PD Gets New Radios

On March 22, 2012, businessmen Moshe Evar, Rami Evar and Kel Evar of Home Dynax LLC, were recognized by the Moonachie Mayor and Council with a proclamation and plaque for their $17,000 donation to the Moonachie Police Department for new digital radios.

On behalf of Moonachie, Mayor Dennis Vaccaro expressed appreciation for their contribution and interest in public safety stating, “Due to budget constraints, this purchase was not in the municipal budget for 2012.”

The Borough’s 17 police officers were recently outfitted with new Kenwood digital radios costing about $19,500.

According to Police Chief Michael Maguire, “The out-of-date Motorola radios were about 16 years old.

This radio allows us to be FCC compliant. All emergency units go to narrow banding frequency for emergency responders.

We are able to program these radios to other agencies, including surrounding towns. In an emergency, we can all be on the same channel.”

The radio features a microphone that can be secured on the shoulder for greater efficiency. The old radios were worn on the officers’ duty belts.

Since 1986, Home Dynax LLC, Carol Place, Moonachie, has manufactured and distributed floor covering products, shower curtains, fabric rings, oven mitts, potholders, bedding and window accessories in Moonachie. Photo provided by the Moonachie Police Department. ###
Carlstadt Chimney Fire

On May 7, 2012, at about 5:30 p.m., the Carlstadt Fire Department was called to a chimney fire on 9th Street. The homeowner had lit the fireplace for the first time in about a year and debris had built up from lack of use. Neighbors called due to flames, embers and smoke coming from the stack.

Due to the elevation and location of the power lines, the Ladder Truck could not be deployed, so fire fighters had to use conventional ladders. By the time firefighters reached the stack, the fire had burnt itself out. No injuries or damage were reported. Photos by Dennis Kronyak Sr. ###

Electrical Fire at Wesmont

On Monday, April 30, 2012, at about 1 p.m., the Wood-Ridge Fire Department received a call for a working fire/smoke condition at Avalon at Wesmont Station electrical room.

Six transformers for the complex are located there. Three of the transformers had been operational. The three additional transformers were being energized by Public Service at the time. Although upon arrival, the fire had been put out by Public Service employees, firefighters thoroughly checked the facility. No injuries were reported. The cause is under investigation.

Broken Pipe Draws WRFD

On Sunday, April 29, 2012, at about 1344 hours, the Wood-Ridge Fire Department was called on a water condition in a commercial building garage on Hackensack Street.

A person passing by noticed water coming through a light fixture in the garage. Hasbrouck Heights Fire Department Ladder Truck checked the roof to make sure water was not coming from the air conditioning unit. After firefighters forced entry into the building, they found that on the second floor, a pipe near a water heater had rusted away. It appeared that the water was running for some time. Firefighters secured the building power and water.

While on this call, WRFD received another call of a mulch fire at Wesmont, adjacent to the building. A W-R Pumper and Carlstadt Engine responded. Photo by Dennis Kronyak Sr. ###

The Wood-Ridge Fire Department will host a wetdown to christen Truck 904, 2012 Sutphen SL100, on September 22, 2012 from 1 p.m. to 6 p.m. at Fire Headquarters, 85 Humboldt Street, Wood-Ridge, NJ. There will be food, music, beverages, mugs, “T” shirts, etc. ###
With personnel in full dress uniform and equipment clean and polished, The Hasbrouck Heights Fire Department conducted its Annual Inspection, at 7:00 p.m., on Saturday, May 12, 2012.

The program began with Firefighter Thomas Rubino calling the Department to attention, the presentation of the Honor Guard, and the Pledge of Allegiance.

HHFD Chaplain, Deacon Vincent DeFedele, provided the invocation. Mayor Rose Heck, Fire Commissioner David Gonzalez and Fire Chief Richard Giarratana made comments.

Area Fire Chiefs inspected the Department’s equipment — and they did a thorough job.

Local officials and the public also inspected the equipment and met with the men and women who serve.

The Hasbrouck Heights Fire Department operates with 40 volunteer members, including EMS and Juniors.

The Hasbrouck Heights Fire Department has a Junior Squad for those between 16 and 18 years of age who offer on-scene support, but are not permitted to enter burning buildings.

Every firefighter must receive 25 weeks of basic firefighter training and every EMT receives 140 hours of basic training.

Many members continue extensive advanced training in the areas of search and rescue, vehicle operation, incident command, hazardous materials, first responder, mass decontamination, etc. The Department conducts training on a regular basis.

The Department is contracted to provide fire and ambulance service to the Borough of Teterboro, and has done so for over 60 years. In 2011, they responded to 1,540 ambulance calls and 309 fire calls and other emergencies.

Its rolling stock includes two pumpers, 110 ft. ladder, heavy rescue truck, crash/foam truck, two ambulances and three chief SUVs. These assets are owned by the Borough of Hasbrouck Heights, but maintained by the volunteers.

The Department conducts only one fundraiser a year, with the proceeds providing training, supplies, etc.

The Department is a member of the South Bergen Fire Chiefs Mutual Aid Association, which helps to coordinate multi-departmental responses to large-scale incidents. Zone 2 includes Carlstadt, Little Ferry, Moonachie, Wallington and Wood-Ridge. These departments are also all volunteer.

The Department was established in 1896. Interested in joining? Call the Fire Chief at 201-288-0082. ###
